State of South Carolina, City of Charleston. I Jane M Coburn of the City of Charleston and State aforesaid, spinster, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make this my last will and testament and in manner and form following: I give devise and bequeath unto my two sisters Caroline A Woods and Elizabeth G Coburn, my five negroes, my Princes and his wife Sophia & their three children, Princes, Phillis and Alice, & the future issue and increase of the females to them and their heirs forever. I give also in like manner unto my two sisters Caroline A Woods and Elizabeth G Coburn, whatever portion of my Father's Estate that would have come to me when finally settled, unto them and their heirs forever and I do nominate constitute and appoint my sister Caroline A Woods, my sole Executrix to this my last Will and testament, hereby revoking and making void every will or wills at any time heretofore made by me & declare this to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of July in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and thirty five and in the Independence of the United States of America the sixteenth.

Jane M Coburn [L.S.]

Signed sealed and published by the said Jane M Coburn as her last Will and testament, in our presence, who have hereunto at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other set our signatures as witnesses thereto.
