No 3 The State of South Carolina In the name of God Amen, I - Jane Johnson, of the City of Charleston, in the said State, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, in manner following; that is to say: ^{Imprimis} - It is my will that my body be decently interred in the Burial Yard of the Second Presbyterian Church, as near to the graves of my beloved parents as possible; and that a plain but suitable Tomb Stone be placed over my grave, and I request my brother William P Johnson, or if he should not survive me, my Executors herein after named to see to the Execution of this part of my will. ^{Item} I give and devise to my said brother William P Johnson the house and lot at the corner of King Street and Blackbird Alley, where I now reside, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. In trust for the sole and separate use of my sister Ann Duffus, for and during her natural life; and from and after the decease of my said sister, In trust for my grand niece Jane Dunn, the grand daughter of my said brother, and her heirs and assigns forever.
But if my said grand niece should die before me, I then give and devise the same, after the death of my sister Ann Duffus as aforesaid, to my nieces Abigail F. Johnson, Amelia B Johnson and Ruth G Johnson, the daughters of my said brother William P Johnson, to them and their heirs and assigns fore-ever. ^{Item} I give and bequeath to my said brother William P Johnson the following five Negro Slaves, viz: Turkey, Sarah, Saul, Sophia and Jane, and the future issue and increase of the females, to him and his Executors, Administrators and assigns forever. And I particularly request him to be kind and indulgent to
not survive me, I then give the said five Negro Slaves

of my said brother William P Johnson, to them and their heirs and assigns fore-ever. Item, I give and bequeath to my said brother William P Johnson the following five Negro slaves, viz: Sukey, Sarah, Saul, Sophia and Jane, and the future issue and increase of the females, to him and his Executors, Administrators
and assigns forever. And I particularly request him to be kind and indulgent to
not survive me, I then give the said five Negro Slaves and the increase of the females to his grand-daughter and three daughters above named, to be equally divided among them, to them and their Executors, Administrators and assigns fore-ever; And I enjoin on them to be kind and indulgent to Sophia and Jane. Item, I give and bequeath to my said grand-niece Jane Durn, and my said Nieces Abigail F Johnson, Amelia B Johnson and Ruth G Johnson, two negro slaves named Emma and Catharine, and their future issue and increase, to them and their Executors, Administrators and assigns. But should my said grand-niece Jane Durn die, without leaving issue of her body lawfully begotten, I then give and bequeath her portion of the said Legacy to my brother William P Johnson his Executors, Administrators & assigns. Item, I give and bequeath to my said brother William P Johnson, a negro girl named Susan, and her future issue and increase, to him and his Executors, Administrators and assigns forever. In trust for the sole and separate use of my sister Ann Duffus, during her natural life; And from and after the decease of my said sister, I in trust to see the said negro girl Susan and her future increase, if any, and divide the proceeds equally among my nieces Ann Duffus, ^{Sarah Duffus} and Mary Duffus, the daughters of my said sister Stern, I give and bequeath to my nieces Sarah Cromwell, Eliza Cromwell, Abigail Cromwell and Jane Cromwell, the daughters of my sister Sarah Cromwell, the following three negro slaves, viz: Hannah, Harriet & Moses, and the future issue and increase of the females, to them and their Executors, Administrators and assigns; And if either of my last mentioned four nieces should die before me, it is my will that the issue of her body, if any, shall take the share, to which she would have been entitled if living. Stern, I give and bequeath to my sister Ann Duffus all my bedding, and wearing apparel. Stern, all the rest and residue of my Estate of what nature or kind soever, after payment of my just debts and funeral expenses, I give devise and bequeath to my brother William P Johnson, and I recommend to my said brother, if he think fit, to give therefrom, to my niece Ann Williams Johnson, the daughter of my brother Sabin Johnson, the sum of two hundred dollars. But if my said brother should not survive me, I then give devise and bequeath the said residue of my Estate to his grand daughter and daughters aforesaid, to be equally divided among them, share and share alike, and in that event I make the same recommendation to them in favor of my said niece Ann Williams Johnson. Lastly, I nominate, constitute and appoint my friends Myron John S. Bulow, Dr. Joseph Johnson and Alexander Brown Esquire Executors of this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me heretofore made, and declaring this to be and contain my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Fifteenth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty three. Jane Johnson (S.S.)
