No. 3.

State of South Carolina, City of Charleston. In the Name of God Amen. I Leonard Fash of the State aforesaid being afflicted in Body but of sound Mind and Memory, do revoke all other and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

First I desire that all my funeral Expenses and all my just debts be paid by my Executors hereafter named as soon as convenient.

Second I give and bequeath to my oldest Son L. Fash Junior not from any dissatisfaction or love to him, but thinking that his younger Brother and Sister stands more in need of it One Dollar with my best wishes for his future Success.

Thirdly. I give and Bequeath to my Beloved Wife "Ann" and her two Children Albert Rob and Leonora all my House at the Corner of Hasell and Meeting Streets, Stock in Trade and whatever property I may be possessed of at my Death.

I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved Wife Ann to be the sole Executor to this my last Will & Testament.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty third of February in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred & thirty eight.

State of South Carolina. In the Name of God Amen. I Lewis Roux a native of the Town of Morges, in the Canton de Vaud in Switzerland and a resident in South Carolina since the year 1773. Being indisposed in Body, but of sound and well disposing mind and memory, Blessed be the Lord for the same, Do make, declare and publish the following to be my only last Will and Testament, to wit: I Commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God my Creator, in hope of the remission of my sins, and of future happiness, through the mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

I order my body to be interred in the French Protestant Church Yard and placed along side of my Brother Francis, and as I always disapproved of Expensive Funerals, I hereby order a plain cedar coffin without ornaments with as few other expences as possible as it never pleased me to see such waste, to the injury of many families, out of ostentation. I particularly request my Beloved wife to comply with this my request. What property I may own & possess at the time of my decease, I will give and Bequeath unto my Beloved Wife Ann Roux for and during her natural life, for her to have, use and enjoy the interest revenue and income of the said property.
