On this day seventh of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty three. I Louis Gude, merchant, residing in Charleston, make my Testament as follows. First, I give and bequeath to my Wife, Michelle Fortune Mignot all the personal and Real property, which shall belong to me on the day of my decease, in order that she may enjoy & dispose of it in absolute right and possession and to that effect I institute her my general legatee.

Second. However, If my said Wife should die before me, then I give and bequeath to Charles Felix Hamel, son of Louis Hamel, an engineer and of Rosalia Mignot his lawful wife, all the personal & real property which shall belong to me on the day of my decease, in order that he may enjoy it in absolute right and possession and dispose of it as he may think proper and to that I institute him my general legatee.

Third. I annul and revoke all Testaments and bequests which I may have made prior to the date of the present deed.

Fourth. I name for Executor of my present Testament M. Roddy de Leumont, Chancellor of the Consulate of France in the City of Charleston, requesting him to give the mark of friendship to myself as well as to my said wife and said Charles Felix Hamel.

Done at Charleston on the aforesaid day, in the presence of the three subscribing witnesses, in conformity of the laws of South Carolina.

In the Name of God Amen / I Joshua Hickman of Florida Duval County, being in good bodily health and of sound and disposing Mind & Memory, calling to mind the frailty and uncertainty of human life, and being desirous of settling my worldly affairs and directing how the estate which it has pleased God to Bless me with shall be disposed of after my decease, while I have strength and capacity so to do, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and making null and void all other last Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made. And first I commend my immortal being to him who gave it, and my body to the Earth to be decently buried. And as to my worldly estate and all the property real personal & mixed of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise bequeath and give the
