No. 6.

In the Name of the Almighty God, Amen! I Lyon Levy of the City of Charleston and State of South Carolina, being in perfect health and of sound memory and understanding, considering the uncertainty of this transitory Life, Do make declare and ordain this to be my last will and Testament; in manner following: In the first place, I desire that all my just Debts be paid.
And as to the worldly property which a kind and merciful Providence has bestowed on me, It is my Will and desire to be disposed of as follows: I give and bequeath the House and Lot of Land in King Street near the corner of Haskell Street in the City aforesaid, where I lately resided together with all and singular the Rights, hereditaments and appurtenances therunto belonging unto my beloved Wife Sarah Cardoso Levy her heirs and assigns forever.
I also give and bequeath unto my said beloved Wife Sarah, All and every such Bank Shares, Stocks, Plate and Furniture together with all and singular every description whatsoever of Real or personal Estate which I may be possessed of or entitled to at the time of my Death, for the sole use, benefit and behoof of her my said beloved Wife Sarah, without any controul or Limitation whatever to be disposed of at her own free Will and pleasure in any manner she may think most proper and expedient. And if in case it should so happen that my dear ^{beloved} Wife Sarah shall depart this Life without making any disposition of the whole or of any part of such Real or personal Estate as is before described and vested in her, by Will and Testament or otherwise, Then and in such case, All such Estate Real or personal which shall remain undisposed of at the time of her Death shall be equally divided, share and share alike, between such of my Children as may be alive at the time of her decease: Provided nevertheless excepting and reserving unto myself my share of the same.

and singular the Rights, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging unto my beloved Wife Sarah Cardoso Levy her heirs and assigns forever.
I also give and bequeath unto my said beloved Wife Sarah, All and every such Bank Shares, Slaves, Plate and Furniture together with all and singular every description whatsoever of Real or personal Estate which I may be possessed of

such Real or personal Estate as is before described and vested in her, by Will and
which shall remain undisposed of at the time of her Death shall be equally divid-
the time of her decease: Provided nevertheless excepting and excluding from Division my son Elias, and his heirs, and the heirs of my dear lamented son Abraham, whom I have not only maintained until they both arrived at a very advanced age free of any expence to them, but have also already given to them more property to commence business, than they could reasonably have expected from me in full of all claims or demands whatsoever, as well on their own account as far what I should have given than Brother Isaac, who died under age. And also excepting and excluding from Division aforesaid, the heirs of my dearly lamented son Jacob, who though he died under age, I had already agreed to promote him in business, as much so, as I conscientiously believe he could reasonably have expected, And his Widow having received whatever supplies remained after paying his debts, as also a negro boy named Adman, which negro boy Adman (brought up saddle by trade) I meant to confer to my said son Jacob as soon as he became of age, but it not pleasing Providence that he should so long live - I now therefore gave the said Negro Boy Adman to his Widow together with all the furniture and personal property he died possessed of. So that with the before mentioned exclusions, whatsoever Real or personal Estate which my beloved wife Sarah may leave undisposed of at the time of her death, may go (as in justice it should) between such of my children only as may not have been already apportioned by me, or who may not be apportioned by her if she shall think proper so to do, in her life time. And Lastly I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said beloved wife Sarah Garza Levy, sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and declaring void and of now effect all and every Will or Testament by me at any time heretofore made. In Witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal in Char--ton aforesaid this twenty first day of June in the year One thousand Eight hundred reasonably have expected, And his Widow having received whatever surplus remained after paying his debts, as also a negro boy named Adrean, which negro boy Adrean (brought up saddle by trade) I meant to confer to my said son Jacob, as soon as he became of age, but it not pleasing Providence that he should so long live - I nevertheless gave the said Negro Boy Adrean to his Widow together with all the furniture and personal property he died possessed of. So that with the before mentioned exclusions, whatsoever Real or personal Estate which my beloved ^{only} Sarah may leave undisposed of at the time of her death, may go (as in justice it should) between such of my Children only as may not have been already apportioned by me, or who may not be apportioned by her if she shall think proper so to do, in her life time. Lastly I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said beloved Wife Sarah Bardoz Levy, sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and declaring void and of no effect all and every Will or Testament by me at any time heretofore made.
