

182^d State of South Carolina. I Mrs Margaret Jones of Charleston in the State No 46. aforesaid, widow, being of sound and disposing mind and Memory, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following. First. I direct and empower my Executor, hereinafter named, to sell for cash immediately after my decease my negro slaves, Tom, Bunga, Robut, Sarah and George. I also empower my Executor to sell and dispose of the house and lot, where I reside in King Street with the several Buildings and out Buildings thereto appertaining at public sale, for cash or credit, upon such terms as he may deem most advantageous, and to make and execute titles therefor. If sold on a credit, the purchaser to give bond and security and a mortgage of the premises, the said credit not to exceed two years. I then direct, that the proceeds of the said sales of the lot and negroes, together with all my South Carolina and Union Bank Shares, be divided into four equal parts or shares, whereof I give and bequeath one share absolutely to my daughter Mrs Ann Seymour. One share I also give absolutely and forever to my son William Jones.
One share, I give and bequeath to my Executor (the cash part thereof to be invested by him in Bank or State Stock at his discretion) to be held by him upon the following trust and provides, that is to say, that he shall pay the interest accruing and from time to time as the same shall accrue, on the said share, to my daughter Mrs Elizabeth Sarah Disher, during the joint lives of herself and Husband.
But should my said Daughter die before her husband, I then direct that such interest be applied ^{by} to my Executor, to the maintenance and education of the child or children of my said daughter, until they respectively attain the age of twenty one years, or day of marriage, which shall first happen, when they shall receive their equal portions of such principal and interest. But should my said Mrs Elizabeth S. Disher, survive her husband, then the interest on the said share

But should my said daughter die before her husband, I then direct that such interest be applied ^{by} my Executor, to the maintenance and education of the child or children of my said daughter, until they respectively attain the age of twenty one years, or day of marriage, which shall first happen, when they shall receive their equal portions of such principal and interest. But should my said Mrs Elizabeth S. Dishen, survive her present husband, I then direct, the said share or proportion to be paid over to her absolutely - and the trust hereby created to cease and terminate. Item is my will ~~and~~ that this receipt of my said daughter during her coverture, shall be a sufficient release and discharge in law & equity, to my Executor for the same, it being my intention that the said interest shall be at the entire disposal of my said daughter & by no means subject to the debts contracts or engagements of her said husband. I ~~do~~ hereby also direct my part thereof in Bank or State Stock at his discretion) and to pay over the interest thereof, as the same shall accrue to my son Robert Williams Jones, for and during the term of his natural life; and from and after his death, I will and direct the said share, to be equally divided between my said three children: and in case either of them be then dead, leaving issue living at his or her death, such child or children to take absolutely the share of their respective parents. Said Item I give and bequeath all and singular my plate and household and kitchen furniture of every denomination, to be equally divided between my two daughters Mrs Ann Seymour and Mrs Elizabeth Sarah Dishen.

I ^{will} ~~will~~ all the rest and residue of my Estate real and personal, in possession or possession, I give and devise equally amongst my said four children, ~~but~~ nevertheless, to all and singular, the same conditions, provisos and limitations as are herein, before mentioned and expressed, to them and their heirs forever.
I hereby release my son William Jones from all claims and demands ~~whatsoever~~ ever for his use and occupation of the house upon my premises in King Street.
I hereby nominate and appoint my said son William Jones to be the sole Executor of this my last Will and testament. And it is my Will that my ~~Will~~ that my Executor shall not be in any manner answerable for any loss that may arise from the depreciation of stock, which he may purchase in pursuance of the power and directions herein above given to him.

In Witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this the 24th day of June in the year of our Lord 1829.
