South Carolina, Charleston District, I Margaret Nowell, the Testatrix in the foregoing last Will and Testament, mentioned, bearing date as aforesaid, on the ninth day of August, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty four do make, publish and declare this to be a bequest to the same. As my son the said John Nowell is and his heirs, and representatives are the only parties, who can be interested in the Devises and Bequest, in the said Will, there can be no necessity or reason, to require him, or his said heirs (in case of his death before me) to be at the trouble or expence of making an Inventory of my Estate after my death. I the said Margaret Nowell do therefore order, Will and direct, that neither the said John Nowell -celler Nowell, nor his heirs (in case of his death as aforesaid) shall be required by the Ordinary of this District or any other -son, to make any Inventory or Account of my said Estate, but that a simple probate of my Will, shall be fully sufficient to invest him with all the rights and privileges of an Executor.

In Witness whereof, I the said Margaret Nowell have hereunto set my hand and seal, at Charleston on the day of October Anno Domini One thousand eight hundred and thirty five

Margaret Nowell (Seal)

Signed Sealed published and declared, by the said Margaret Nowell (the word "nineteen", being first abbreviated to the word "nine", in the presence of us, as a bequest to the said Will and we, the said Witnesses in her presence and that of each other have signed our names as witnesses thereto.
