State of South Carolina. In the Name of God, Amen. I Rebec ca Martin of the City of Charleston being of sound and dis posing mind, Memory and understanding, and being desirous to make disposition of my Estate in the event of my death, do hereby make and declare my last Will in manner and form following. I give and bequeath unto my grand daughter Elva Mc Lee, two Shares in the Stock of the Bank of South Carolina. The rest and residue of my Estate, real and personal of every sort, and description whatsoever and wheresoever situated I will to be divided into four equal parts or shares, and I give devise and bequeath one of the said parts a share to each of my three daughters Elva Strobel, Harriett Backman and Mary Wooton respectively, and to their respective heirs and Assigns, absolutely and forever: and if either of my said daughters should die in my life time, my will is that the part a share of my Estate, devised to any of my daughters so dying, shall not lapse, but I give devise and bequeath the same to such person or persons as my said deceased daughter shall by her last Will appoint and in default of such appointment to such person or persons as by the Laws of this State for the distribution of the Estates of intestates may be entitled to the Estate of daughter so dying the remaining fourth part or share of the said residue of my Estate real and personal I give devise and bequeath unto my three grand daughters Elsie M. Lee, Annie M. Lee and Hannah R Lee to be equally divided among them share and share alike as tenants in common and not as joint tenants and to their respective heirs and assigns forever; the issue of any of my said grand daughters if either of them should die in my life time leaving issue, to take the share or portion herein devised and bequeathed to their respective parents: and if either of my said grand daughters should die unmarried and under the age of twenty one years either during my life time or afterwards, I give devise and bequeath the share or shares of my said grand daughter or grand daughters so dying, to the survivor or survivors of them; and if all of my said three grand daughters should so die, then I give devise and bequeath the whole of the said remaining fourth part of the said residue of my Estate real and personal to the Brothers of the whole blood of my said grand daughters equally to be divided among them share and share alike as tenants in common and not as joint tenants and to their respective heirs and assigns absolutely and forever. Lastly I nominate, Constitute and appoint my grand son Maynard D Strobel and my friend Dr. Samuel Wilson, executors of this my last will and testament; hereby revoking all former and other wills at any time heretofore by me made and declaring this only to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Charleston, [illegible]
