

18. W^o In the Name of God Amen I Rosina Gyles of the City of Charleston
N^o. 33. widow, being of sound mind memory and understanding do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following.

It is my will and desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be fully paid, after which I give and bequeath unto George W. Cooper Five Hundred dollars. I give and bequeath unto Sarah P. Hubbell Two Hundred and fifty dollars I give and bequeath unto Thaddeus Hubbell Two hundred and fifty dollars.
In case at the time of my death, there should not be property enough to enable my Executor to pay the above legacies in full, then it is my will and desire that my aforesaid legatees should respectively receive shares of what property I do leave in proportion of the above legacies. I do hereby constitute and appoint H George W. Cooper to be the Executor to this my will.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of July A.D. Eighteen hundred and Thirty five.

18.20: In the Name of the Holy Trinity, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Amen
N^o. 34 I the undersigned, formerly of Saint Domingo, but for the last several years a resident of Charleston in the State of South Carolina, being in the enjoyment of sufficient good health for my age, as well as in possession of all the faculties of mind, do this day make my last will as follows. Firstly, I recommend my soul to God, imploring his Divine Majesty to have mercy on it. Secondly, My desire is that my body should be interred in the grave of my grand daughter in the grave yard of the Roman Catholic Church, having been brought up in the doctrines she teaches, and hoping by the grace of the Sovereign Ruler of all things to die in the same belief, wishing also, that a Tomb Stone should be erected with my own name and that of my grand daughter upon it thereon, and that a Mass be said for the repose of my soul. Thirdly I desire that my debts should be paid and my wrongs redressed if any exist at the time of my death. Fourthly. - I give and bequeath to my Nephews Andre Dura and to my niece Antoinette Dura the children of Bartholomew Dura residing at Lyons in the department of the Rhone in the Kingdom of France, the sum of Ten thousand francs. Fifthly I give and bequeath to my grand daughter
