Box 2
No 7 I Samuel Pioleau of Charleston South Carolina do declare this to be my last Will and Testament. I do hereby give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth Synch Pioleau all and singular my estate real and personal for and during the term of her natural life without impeachment of waste with full liberty to sell and dispose of the same or any part thereof according to her will and pleasure and to invest the proceeds as she may think proper and again to sell and re-invest without being accountable for the same to any one whomsoever and from and immediately after her decease I give devise and bequeath the same unto my four Children Hannah Samuel, Elizabeth, Alice and Charles or the survivors of them to be equally divided between them absolutely and forever. And I do hereby request my said Wife to give such of my sons as may be admitted hereafter to the bar my Law Library for his or their absolute use and benefit. And I do hereby declare that the only reason why I have not left my dear son Hamilton a share of my estate is because he is entitled to the whole of his Mothers property, which will exceed in amount the share which either of my other Children will be entitled to on a division. And I do hereby constitute my said Wife the Guardian of my Children and the sole Executrix of this my Will. Dated at Charleston this fifth day of April Anno Domini One thousand eight hundred and thirty
