John May

Proved before them as Legals O. C. J. D. on the twenty sixth day of June 1838. At the same time qualified James E. Walker Esq. by William J. Walker and Robert D. Walker Executors therein named. Well proved in solemn form.

19. E. No. 29 The State of South Carolina. In the Name of God Amen I Walter Knox of the City of Charleston in the State aforesaid being infirm in health but of disposing mind and memory do hereby revoking all others, make this my last Will and Testament.

Imprimis. I Will and direct that my funeral expenses and all other just debts be paid immediately after my death with the exception of the debt due John Hall Esquire should there be any thing owing him, on a fair settlement being had and adjusted and if there is a balance in his favor, as he is wealthy I desire that the said Balance, whatever it may be, shall be paid as soon as it can be conveniently done, out of the income arising from my Estate.

Item I bequeath and devise unto my Wife Catherine the whole of my ^{personal} property and Real Estate for and during her Natural Life and after her death I bequeath the same to 368 The whole of the said Personal property and Real Estate to my children Janet Mc Kinnon, Mary A. Pennel, the wife of Robert Pennel, Ann Knox, Catherine A. Knox, Margaret Knox, Elizabeth Knox and Charlotte Knox to them and to their heirs forever share and share alike. But should any one or more of my said children die previous to my wife Catherine Knox's death, then her share or their share shall be equally divided among her or their surviving sister. If however any one or more of my said children whose names have been herein before particularly mentioned shall die leaving a child or children living at the death of his her or their Grand Mother, the Grand child or grand children surviving shall represent his her or their decedent Mother and shall take that portion of my said personal property and Real Estate to which his her or their decedent Mother would have been entitled to under this my said last Will and Testament on the death of my Wife the said Catherine Knox.

I am hereby authorize my Executrices and Executor to sell or otherwise dispose of any portion of my said personal property and Real Estate whenever they in the exercise of their best Judgment shall think it most beneficially advisable to do so, but it is my express Will and Direction, that whenever any portion of my said personal property and Real Estate is sold or otherwise disposed of the proceeds shall be, as soon after as it can be effected invested in other property either Real or Personal, which will yield an interest.

I do And Lastly I nominate constitute and appoint my Wife Catherine Knox and my Daughter Janet H Knox and my son in Law and Friend Robert Pennal Executors & Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In Witness whereof I the said Walter Knox have written my name on the second page of this Will and hereby hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the twenty sixth day of September in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty seven and in the sixty second year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America

Walter Knox
Signed sealed and declared by the Testator to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who in his presence and at his request, and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses to the due execution thereof. The word "witnessed" is underlined above the seventeenth line on the second page of this Will.
