house and lot with all the said Personal Property to Charles Moison and Campbell Douglass, to them their Executors and Administrators. I trust nevertheless to and for this especial purpose, that they their Executors and Administrators shall pay over to my Daughter Mary E Thompson the wife of Henry Thompson (taking her receipt for their several payments) all the proceeds or interest that shall from time to time arise out or become due on the said Real and Personal Estate, nor shall this said Real and personal Estate nor the Interest or Proceeds arising therefrom be subject to the control or liable to any contract or intermeddling of her present or any future husband which she the said Mary E Thompson may hereafter have and after the death of the said Mary E Thompson, then I devise and bequeath the whole of this said Real and Personal Estate to the Lawful Issue of the said Mary E Thompson to them and their Heirs forever, freed from all limitations and restrictions whatsoever. Item, I bequeath also unto my Wife Mary Crouchshanks ~~one~~ half of the Proceeds which shall arise from the rest and residue of my real Estate to be paid over to her regularly during her natural life for her own use and behoof, and after ^{her} death then I devise and bequeath this said half of my real Estate to Charles Moison and Campbell Douglass to them their Executors and Administrators I trust nevertheless upon this condition that they shall pay over to my Daughter Mary E Thompson the wife of Henry Thompson all the Proceeds or interest which shall arise from this said half part of my real Estate taking her
