Item I give and bequeath to my niece Mrs. Rachael Fare Two hundred Dollars.

Item I give & bequeath to my nephew Elias Bates Two hundred Dollars.

Item I give & bequeath to Bishop Nathaniel Bowen Two hundred Dollars.

~~I give~~ Item I give & bequeath to Rev. Frederick Dalcho Two hundred Dollars.

Item I give & bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth M. Pringle for her sole and separate use for life, my pair of silver sauce boats and after her death to her children.

Item I give and bequeath to my daughter Ann Brighton for her sole & separate use for life, my large silver urn & after her death to her children.

Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter Susan M. Cleary for her sole and separate use for life, my large silver waiter & after her death to her children.

Item I give and bequeath to my daughter Ann Brighton for her sole & separate use for life, my large silver urn & after her death to her children.

Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter Susan M^r. Bleary for her sole and separate use for life, my large silver waiter & after her death to her children.

Item, I order and direct, all the rest of my plate & plated ware to be divided into three equal parts, One part whereof I give & bequeath to each of my three daughters for her sole & separate use for life and after their death, to their children respectively.

Item I give and bequeath to James R. Pringle, his Executors administrators and assigns, my negro woman Phoebe with her present & future issue and increase, also my slave Stepany, in trust never the less for the sole and separate use and behoof of my daughter Elizabeth M^r Pringle during her life and after her death to her children forever, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts or engagements of her present or any future husband.

Item, I give and bequeath to James R. Pringle, his Executors, administrators and assigns a negro man named Jack together with his wife Prudence with their present and future issue and increase, also a negro woman named Phillis (my daughter Brancy's nurse) with her present and future ^{issue} & increase, also Tommy March, Toney and his sister Elzey in trust never the less for the sole and separate use and behoof of my daughter Ann Brighton during her life and after her death to her children forever, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts or engagements of her present or any future husband.

Item I give and bequeath to Henry A. De Saupere his Executors administrators and assigns a negro man named King in trust never the less for the sole and separate use and behoof of my daughter Ann Brighton during her life and after her death to her children forever, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts or engagements of her present or any future husband.

and given for her sole & separate use for life and after their deaths to their children respectively.

Item I give and bequeath to James R Pringle, his Executors administrators and assigns, my negro woman Phoebe with her present & future issue and increase, also my slave Stephen, in trust nevertheless for the sole and separate use and behoof of my daughter Elizabeth Mc Pringle during her life and after her death to her children forever, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts or engagements of her present or any future husband.

Item, I give and bequeath to James R Pringle, his Executors, administrators and assigns a negro man named Jack together with his wife Prudence with their present and future issue and increase, also a negro woman named Phyllis (my daughter Frances's nurse) with her present and future ^{present} increase, also Tommy March, Toney and his sister Elsey in trust nevertheless for the sole and separate use and behoof of my daughter Ann Brighton during her life and after her death to her children forever, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts or engagements of her present or any future husband.

Item I give and bequeath to Henry A De Laupre his Executors administrators and assigns a negro man named Ned & his wife Tillah & their daughter Dido; also Mulatto Tom & his wife Charlotte and their child; also Hyman and his wife Betty and their present and future issue & increase, also Collier the driver & Sylvia his wife and their present and future issue and increase in trust nevertheless for the sole and separate use and behoof of my daughter

Susan M Cleary during her life, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts, engagements or intermeddling of her present or any future husband, and after her death, for her child or children; but in case my said daughter Susan M Cleary should not, at the time of her death leave surviving her any child or children, then I will and direct that the aforesaid negro slaves with their issue and increase be equally divided among such of my children as should be then living, or, in case of the death of either of them, to and among their surviving children or such children collectively by taking their parents share.

I then I give and devise unto Henry J DeSapere, his heirs and assigns my Plantation called Canaan situated in Prince Williams Parish Beaufort District together with the whole of my household & kitchen furniture as it stands in my dwelling house there & the plantation tools, in trust over the same for the sole and separate use and behoof of my daughter Susan M Cleary during her life and no longer, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts, engagements or intermeddling of her present or any future husband: And I particularly desire that the negroes Collier and his family and Hymen and his family may be kept at work on the Canaan Plantation and not be removed during my said daughter's life: and immediately after the death of my said daughter Susan M Cleary, I order & direct the said Trustee to sell the said Canaan Plantation together with the furniture and tools, and divide the proceeds of such sale equally and absolutely among all my grand children then living, per stirpes and not per capita, that is, each family of grandchildren taking among them one share.

Item. All the rest and residue of my estate real and personal of every kind of nature whatsoever, I order & direct my Executors to sell; and from the proceeds of such sales, after the payment of my debts and legacies, I order and direct my Executors to pay over to James R Pringle the sum of Ten thousand Dollars to be vested by him in stock or other securities in his name as trustee, in trust nevertheless to apply and pay over the dividends or interest thereof to & for the sole, separate and exclusive use & behoof of my daughter Ann Brighton during the term of her natural life, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts or intermeddling of her present or any future husband, and after her death, I give and bequeath the said stock or other securities to the child or children of the said Ann Brighton then living absolutely. And from the proceeds of the said sales, I also order and direct my Executors to pay over to James R Pringle the further sum of Ten thousand Dollars to be vested by him in stock or other securities in his name as trustee, in trust nevertheless to apply, at his discretion, the dividends or interest thereof to and for the education, maintenance and support of my Granddaughter Carolina Mc Graves until she attains the age of 21 years or day of Marriage, and upon the occurrence of either of those events, to deliver over or pay over the Capital of the said stock or securities to the said Carolina Mc Graves or her assigns absolutely: But if the said Carolina Mc Graves should depart this life before attaining the age of 21 years or day of Marriage, leaving her Mother Susan Mc Cleary surviving her, then I order and direct the said James R Pringle Trustee aforesaid to pay to Susan Mc Cleary the annual dividend or interest of the said stock or securities for and during the term of her natural life.

for her sole and separate use and behoof, without being subject in any manner whatever to the debts, contracts or intermeddling of her present or any future husband; but if the said Carolina McLean should depart this life before attaining the age of 21 years or the age of Marriage, and her Mother Susan McLean should not be then living, I order and direct the said James R. Pringle Trustee aforesaid to divide the Capital of the said Stock or Securities among my surviving daughters, or if either or both of my daughters be then dead, to and among their surviving children, such children collectively, taking their parents share.

Item, After the payment of my debts, legacies & the two last mentioned sums I order and direct my Executor to divide the residue of the proceeds of such sales and all my other property of every kind whatsoever into three equal parts, One third part whereof I give and bequeath to James R. Pringle his executor, administrators and assigns in trust nevertheless for the sole and separate use and behoof of my daughter Elizabeth McPringle, during her natural life, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts or engagements of her present or any future husband and after her death, I give and bequeath the same to her child or children then living absolutely; One other third part whereof I give to James R. Pringle his executor, administrators & assigns in trust nevertheless for the sole ~~separate~~ ^{exclusive} use & behoof of my daughter Ann Breighton during her natural life, without being subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts, contracts or engagements of her present or any future husband, and after her death, I give & bequeath the same to her child or children then living absolutely; And the ~~remaining~~ ^{residue} remaining third part whereof I give and bequeath to Henry S. Sauspore his Executor administrators & assigns in trust nevertheless for the sole Saupeure his Executor administrators & assigns in trust never the less for the sole separate and exclusive use and behoof of my daughter Susan M Cleary during her natural life, without being subject in any manner, whatsoever to the debts, contracts or intermeddling of her present or any future husband and after her death, I give & bequeath the same to her child or children then living absolutely: But in case either of my daughter should depart this life without leaving a child or children surviving her at the time of her death, then I give & bequeath the portion of my estate given her under ^{any} clause of my will (except the banana plantation) to & among such of my daughters as should then be living, or in case of the death of any of them at that time, to & among their then surviving children, such children collectively taking their parents share: And it is further in my express Will & direction that if my granddaughter Carolina M Graves should die without attaining the age of 21 years or day of marriage, that all the estates, vested or contingent interests & rights given to her under ^{any} clause of this my will, should determine, lapse & be revoked & such estates & interests (subject nevertheless to the contingent life estate hereinbefore given to Susan M Cleary in the dividends or interest on the legacy of Ten thousand Dollars) I give & bequeath to my children or their children then surviving them upon the same trusts as hereinbefore expressed & declared of the estates given them in this residuary clause.

Item, I do hereby authorize and empower the respective Trustees named in the foregoing clauses to change, sell or exchange the property or funds entrusted to them respectively & at the request & with the consent of the respective cestui que trust to substitute such other property real or personal in its place & stead as may be deemed most for the benefit of the parties interested therein, subject nevertheless to the same uses and trusts.

debt, contracts or intermeddling of her present or any future husband and after her death, I give & bequeath the same to her child or children then living absolutely: But in case either of my daughters should depart this life without leaving a child or children surviving her at the time of her death, then I give & bequeath the portion of my estate given her under ^{any} clause of my will (except the Banaan Plantation) to & among such of my Daughters as should then be living, or in case of the death of any of them at that time, to & among their then surviving children, such children collectively taking their parents share: And it is further my express Will & direction that if my granddaughter Carolina M. Graves should die without attaining the age of 21 years or day of marriage, that all the estate, vested or contingent interest, & rights given to her under ^{any} clause of this my will, should determine, lapse & be revoked & such estate & interests (subject nevertheless to the contingent life estate hereinbefore given to Susan M. Cleary in the dividends or interest on the legacy of Ten thousand Dollars) I give & bequeath to my children or their children then surviving them upon the same trusts as hereinbefore expressed & declared of the estates given them in their residuary clause.

Item, I do hereby authorize and empower the respective Trustees named in the foregoing clauses, to change, sell or exchange the property or funds entrusted to them respectively & at the request & with the consent of the respective cestui que trust to substitute such other property real or personal in its kind & place as may be deemed most for the benefit of the parties interested therein, subject nevertheless to the same uses and trusts.

Lastly I nominate constitute & appoint James R. Pungli, James [unclear]
