

With the worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God in this life to bless me, payment of my lawful debts and funeral charges, I give and dispose, as follows, I give devise and bequeath unto my daughter Ann Liber all my personal property, consisting of stock in trade, household furniture wearing apparel &c &c &c I give devise and bequeath unto my four children Ann Liber, Samuel Liber, Louisa Liber and George Liber (my house and lot of land situate in King Street corner of Burns Alley) be divided between them share and share alike, but in case any of my said children should happen to die before they attain the age of twenty one years, or get married then his or her share or shares to be equally divided amongst the survivors of them, it is my will and to hereby order and empower my Executrix and Executor hereafter mentioned to rent lease or sell the house and lot aforesaid, and to act in any manner they may think best for the benefit and advantage of my said children.
And I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my beloved daughter Ann Liber and my trusty friend Peter Wyatt Executrix and Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereon set my hand and seal and declaring this and this only to be and contain my last Will and Testament this seventeenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two.

In the Name of God Amen, I William Guest of the City of Charleston Merchant, being infirm and sick in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory, for which thanks be given to the Almighty knowing at the same time the mortality of the body, that it is appointed unto all men in this life once to die, therefore trusting to Almighty God for the forgiveness of sins, through a perfect faith and belief of the mediation of Jesus Christ, hoping for a resurrection to glory, resign my soul unto him that gave it and my body to the dust, to be interred in a decent, plain and Christian like manner, by my executors hereafter named. As to my worldly affairs it is also necessary to make disposition of them, which I do in manner and form herein described and explained by this my last Will and Testament as the different items stand, first I give and bequeath unto my beloved son Joseph Guest one hundred and ten dollars in cash, and a library of books about three hundred and ten volumes lent to him sometime past, that is to say, provided he the said Joseph does never molest, interfere or interrupt my executors, heirs, trustees or assigns in the proper execution of their dividends and rights, touching the true intent of this my last Will but should he Joseph interfere in any manner to interrupt then the bequeathed library of books to be vested in the hands of
