

My daughter Rebecca Rose, and one hundred pounds being to be paid by my daughter Mary Lining, with good interest for the time being, to commence from the end of one year after my decease. And the said sum of two hundred pounds I give equally between my two grand children Richard Woodcraft and Martha Woodcraft, to be paid to them, as they respectively marry, or attain the ages of twenty one years, the interest to be appropriated in the mean time, to their support and education.
If either of them should die, before that period, the survivor to take the whole, and in case of the death of both of them before such period, the same shall remain in the hands of my said daughters for ever, or if they or either of them be dead, to their children, who are to represent their parents respectively. And in consideration of my daughter Lining's having built a house on that part of my land called Sandy Bay, I desire that in the division, the same shall be allotted to her, without any regard to the value of the buildings. I appoint my daughters Rebecca Rose and Mary Lining, and my Cousin Charles Lining, to be executrices and Executor of this my Will, and guardians to my said grand children. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty seventh day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eight.
