South Carolina. In the Name of God Amen. I Catherine Holbeck, of Charleston Widow, being of sound and disposing mind memory and judgment, and aware of the certainty of Death, do make the following disposition of the worldly effects, wherewith it hath pleased Almighty God to bless me. First I will all my negroes and other personal property to be sold by my Executors hereinafter mentioned, upon such terms as they may think most advantageous to my Estate and the money arising from such Sale, after ^{the} payment of my just debts and funeral expenses to be placed out at Interest, as also a Bond which I hold of Jacob DeLoach for

96. Five hundred Pounds, and the interest arising from such money to be appropriated to the maintenance, education and support of my grandchildren in the following manner, that is to say, one third part to Selina Bap and Thomas Bap children of my daughter Dorothea Bap, deceased; one third to Catherine Horlbeck, daughter of my son George Horlbeck, but if my son George Horlbeck claim and recover, a legacy out of my Estate, which was bequeathed to me by my father George Vilhaur, in trust for my children, then it is my Will and desire, that the amount he may claim or recover be deducted out of the legacy herein and hereby given to his said daughter Catherine, and the remaining third part to my grandchildren Catherine Simmons, Leivina Simmons, and Benjamin Simmons children of my daughter Mary Simmons, share and share alike, and it is my Will and desire that as my said grandchildren arrive, the girls to the age of Eighteen, and the Boys to the age of Twenty one years, or days of marriage, then the principal be divided and given to him her or them, in the proportion above specified relative to the application and disposition of the Interest as above stated. Secondly It is my Will and desire that if Selina Bap should die before the age of Eighteen or day of marriage, her share and property given by this Will, should go to her brother Thomas Bap, and my Will and desire that if Selina Bap should die before the age of Eighteen or day of marriage, her share and property given by this Will, should go to her brother Thomas Bap, and if my said Grandson Thomas Bap, should die before the age of twenty one or day of marriage, then it is my Will that his share should go to his said sister Selina Bap; But if both should die before they attain the respective ages as aforesaid or days of marriage, then it is my Will and desire, that their third part or proportion of my estate should be equally divided among my remaining grandchildren share and share alike - and if my said Grand daughter Catherine Horlbeck should die before the age of eighteen or day of marriage, then it is my Will and desire, that her share of my Estate should go to her father George Horlbeck, but should her said father George Horlbeck die before the said Estate should vest in him then the share & proportion of Catherine Horlbeck to be equally divided among the rest of my grandchildren. And it is my Will & desire that if Catherine Simmons, Lavinia Simmons & Benjamin Simmons should die under the ages limited to the males & females in this will or days of marriage respectively, that the share or proportion of the one so dying should go to the survivor or survivors of them, share and share alike; but if the whole of them die under the ages respectively limited to the males & females or days of marriage, then their share or third part should go to their mother

Mary Simmons but should their mother Mary Simmons die before the said Estate should vest in her then the Share and proportion herein and hereby given to both ^{Simmons} ~~her~~ Larina Simmons & Benjamin Simmons to be equally divided amongst the rest of my grandchildren then & Share alike. Lastly I nominate constitute and appoint Edward George Saps & William Henry Saps, Executors of this my last Testament hereby revoking all others & declaring ^{this} to be my only true and last Testament. Witness my hand and seal this seventh day of January anno Domini One thousand eight hundred & thirteen.
