

such debts and funeral expenses are fully paid and satisfied, I give devise and bequeath all the rest residue and remainder of my Estate both real and personal whatsoever and whatsoever unto my brother Amos Pillsbury of the said City and State and to him and his heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns for ever And lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my said brother Amos Pillsbury Executor of this my last Will and Testament, revoking and making void all Wills heretofore by me made. In Witness whereof I the said William Pillsbury have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty ninth day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight and one

William Pillsbury Esq.

Sealed and delivered in the presence of Laurence Hiatt William Leach John W. Johnston
Proved before Charles Lining Esquire A. C. T. D. September 11. 1801. At same time qualified Amos Pillsbury Executor.

Examined
234 C. F. 36. L.

South Carolina.

6. In the Name of God Amen, I Charlotte Ward of Charleston Widow, being in sound disposing mind and judgment, do make ordain and declare this my last Will and Testament, my soul I bequeath to my blessed redeemer, on whose merits I rely for eternal happiness. 1. I desire that all debts due by me may be discharged as soon as possible. 2. I give and bequeath to my Son in law Ruff Hazard Esquire five hundred pounds sterling, if I should survive him, then the same to be paid and divided equally among his Children. 3. I give and bequeath to my c. Piece Henrietta Mary Broughton one hundred pounds sterling and a complete suit of mourning. 4. I give and bequeath to my four c. Pieces Eliza Charlotte c. Maryck, Henrietta c. Mary Broughton Mary c. Motte and Charlotte Broughton all my jewels watch and wearing apparel to be impartially divided and allotted among them. 5. After payment of my pecuniary legacies aforesaid then remaining part of my Estate in cash money in the funds of the United States or the State of South Carolina bonds, notes or other specialties and due to me, and all my negro slaves (the wench Rachel excepted) to be fairly appraised and valued, one half the amount of such valuation I bequeath to the Children of my deceased brother Nathaniel Broughton, namely Thomas Broughton my niece Eliza Charlotte Mazyck and my niece Henrietta Mary Broughton share and share alike, but in case it should survive either of them then to the Children or heirs of such. The other half I bequeath in three parts into which my Executors will divide and apportion as follows, to my niece Mary Motte one third part, to my niece Charlotte Broughton one third part, to Heating Simons and John Porcher Esquires in trust for the Children of my deceased Nephew Alexander Broughton one third part, which last third as soon as the valuation and amount can be ascertained to be paid in money or specialties only, into the hands of my said trustees and the same to place at interest in funds of United States or otherwise as they shall judge best, and the interest thereon to receive and when it shall amount to two hundred dollars to place the same at interest as the principal, and my will and desire is that when any of the Children of my said Nephew Alexander Broughton shall attain the age of twenty one years or marry, that my said trustees do divide the same to and amongst such as may be living, but in case there should be none of my said Nephew's Children attain that age or marry, then my said trustees will pay the said third part with the interest equally between my said nieces Mary Motte and Charlotte Broughton. & all the residue of my Estate of every denomination, plate, furniture, horses, carriage or other property, I bequeath to and amongst my aforesaid four nieces and my nephew Thomas Broughton to be appraised allotted and divided amongst them by my Executors in the most equitable manner as soon after my decease as possible. 7th I desire that my niece Henrietta Mary Broughton may have the option to take her proportion of my negroes at the appraised value or the amount in money out of my Estate and it is my wish that my negroes may be possessed and remain among my legatees, and the wench Rachel to have

20) the privilege to choose her owner in the family, whom that may be, knowing her faithful services to me, I hope will influence for her a comfortable situation and give her suitable mourning, and in trust for her support I give to him or her twenty pounds and if not expended in her life time the residue to the person she so chooses to whom she is to pass without appraisement or price and I give her further six pounds at her own disposal, and to my negro women servants all of their mourning. I. Will lastly Appoint Executors to this my Will my Nephew Thomas Broughton Senior, Alexander's Morych and Alexander's Motte and have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal at Charleston this twenty eight day of January 1800.

Charlotte Izard Esq.

Signed, sealed and declared by Charlotte Izard to be her last Will and Testament in presence of us, the interlineation of women servants being made before signing John Dawson, John Dawson Junior.

Proved before Charles Lining Esquire C. C. T. D. September 21. 1801. At same time qualified Alexander's Motte Executor.
December 3. 1801. Qualified Thomas Broughton Executor.

Examined
8th Dec. 1801. J. C. L.

14th N. 7. In the Name of God Amen, I Elizabeth Rivers of Charleston Widow, do now make my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others. I give to my daughter Rebecca Rose, my negro man Charles, for ever. I give to my daughter Mary Lining, my negro man Ned, for ever. I give to my grand daughter Maryann O'Hara, my negro girl named Mary, with her future Issue and Increase for ever. I give to my grand daughter Rebecca Lining, my negro girl Dye, with her future Issue, for ever. I give to my grand daughter Martha Woodcraft, my negro girl Belketh, with her future Issue for ever. I give to my grand Son Richard Woodcraft, my negro boy George, for ever. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my Estate, real and personal to my two daughters, Rebecca Rose and Mary Lining, to be equally divided between them, to hold the same to them and their respective heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns for ever, subject however to the payment of the following sums, and with which the same is hereby charged, to wit, one hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the