In the Name of God amen, I Dick Wragg a free black Man of the City of Charleston, being sick and weak in body, but of sound Mind, Memory and Understanding, do make and declare last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say—first it is my Will and desire that my Wench Mira, and my Dray and Horse shall be sold and the monies arising therefrom be applied towards paying all my just debts and funeral charges—provided nevertheless that if the said Wench Mira shall within the space of six months after my decease, pay to my Executor herein after named the sum of seventy two pounds sterling, then and in such case it is my Will and desire that she shall not be sold, but that she shall have her freedom, and the said sum of seventy two pounds shall be applied in the same manner and to the same purposes as if the said Wench had been sold—and secondly if any of the said Monies arising from the said sale, or any part of the said sum of seventy two pounds as aforesaid should remain after paying and satisfying the debts as aforesaid then I give and bequeath unto my Mother Mary Courtney the sum so remaining, together with all other property I may be possessed of, to her own proper use and behoof for ever. And lastly I nominate constitute and appoint Alexander Scott a free black Man of the City of Charleston Executor to this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all others by me heretofore made In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 13 day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Ninety nine and in the twenty fourth Year of American Independence.
