in the County of Inverness & an Alumnus of King's College Abertree in Scotland in the Kingdom of Great Britain & for the last Twenty years Pastor of the Presbyterian Church on Beattie Island in this State, being sick and weak in body but with all that reason and understanding which the Almighty in his goodness imparted to me, imploring the same Almighty power to forgive my manifold sins & infirmities. He receives me into acceptance thru the mediation & intercession of the great Redeemer of Mankind whenever he thinks proper to call me from this Theatre of things. Do make this my last Will & Testament in manner & form following.

that is to say - In the first place, I will bequeath all my personal effects, I will my just & legal debt fully paid & settled, & that for this purpose, all my horses, cattle, sheep, and other plantations stock excepting such as may be absolutely necessary for plantation use, & all my household and kitchen furniture be sold by my Executors and Executors as early as may be convenient to them - In the second place, I will and direct that all the property both real & personal to which my Daughter Sarah Bailey Mosebrook is entitled in the last of my decease, in and by virtue of a marriage Settlement made and entered into in the year One Thousand Seven Hundred & thirty five the one part, & James Murray & William Teabrook of the other part, and duly recorded in the Secretary of State's Office in Charleston, - may devolve upon her according to said Deed of Marriage Settlement and provisions thereof be given her immediately on my decease provided always she be the life. And it is my true understanding in order to prevent any future dispute or litigation on the subject that the last estate that is to say the last estate with the exception of the said

on the subject that the lands & estate that is to say the plantation with the appurtenances set forth and described in the said Decree of Marriage Settlement, be not considered as any longer as bound by the said deed or as constituting a part of the property therein conveyed, in consequence of the said plantation with the appurtenances having since been sold aliened & conveyed away by me with the consent and at the instance and request of my wife, the said Elizabeth Bailey Teabrooke, then & now the mother of the said Jacob Bailey McLeod, & of the said James Murray & William Teabrooke Trustees under the aforesaid deed, in and upon the consideration that the purchase money therefor with the exception of one hundred & fifty pounds sterling was paid by myself and out of my own personal funds at a period subsequent to my marriage with the said Elizabeth Bailey Teabrooke all which facts may be proved by reference to William Teabrooke the surviving Trustee, and William Robertson who framed the aforesaid ^{marriage} Settlement. In the third place, I give & devise hereunder the following legacies to the following persons to be paid in the manner
