

Mount Airey. Union District 13th Oct. 1819. In the Name of God.
Know ye that I have appointed William Young of Charleston my good friend my sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament revoking all others heretofore made. Imprimis, I give my Body to the Grand Architect of the World who wonderfully formed the same and by whose Almighty power I trust in its resuscitation of the same in a heavenly frame. And then behold with awful reverence and delight the great Grand Architect of the Grand entire, crowned in light ineffable and the grand Divine High Priest at his Foot stool the Books laid before. While from the immensity of Boundless space on wings of ether hasten before the Judge. Here brother may we meet and all mankind. 2nd I sign over to you in Trust an account of John Roberts or Walter now residing in Edinburgh particularly abt 825 acres on Saratuck Spartaburgh for which you will please pay taxes at Spartaburgh Court House I frequently paid in town but not lately. If any of the neighbours would rent it, it would be well if not sold for two or three years without a somewhat reasonable price is offered. It cannot bring less than $1000 bask monthly for 500 or 600 credit may be given. You will find in my small pocket Book which will down send a transfer to me of a Note of J. C. Baird dated 2 June 1812. he confessed judgment to pay of James McCall & Haynes Att^y $415. You will find a Note of James Drummonds 253. These two sums as soon as possible can be paid to me in full. Without Mr Pringles. There was paid to Mr. Wall 177. & 850. of on Pringles Estate. Give it 17/10 to Mr. Wall. you will find Capt. Kennedy's for $270. This you will also give to Mr. Wall out of which he must take up my debt of $30 from Capt. Kennedy's Son. To Capt. Brygman by James Wall I owe $25 freight & Warehouse wharf 3.30. This can be paid when you sell the Books. Napier will do them most justice. Deliver my love with to Mrs. Calder as mark of my love and gratitude my obligations to her & husband are inexpressible. May that God who is the source of consolation guide them to happiness. you and Mrs. Spring Stuart are the happy parents of another child. For that child preserve one of my daughters Portraits. Alas! I have nothing of importance to give. The other portrait give to Mr. Champneys for being so true a friend. I lament it not. Mr. Champneys may see cause if crops are good to send Amy a Bth Rice. My watch please deliver to Mrs. J.E. McDonald who gave it me when I had none. In the Pocket Book you will also find a note of 25 doll^s indorsed by Mr. Barnes to me for collection, please return it. I am at Capt.

Bryces who owes me 30 + I gave ^{all} to Mrs. Bryce, what I had remaining $32.62. I hope that will be sufficient for my burial, for I forgetting a funeral. I name the place Mount Hiey never having a you that she, also your own saddle, also my Table and Drawer in which are my papers. one shall be returned to you - also the desk, papers & Books on glass & Young's counter, to do with as you would wish to spend in like cases friend to do with yours. So James Wall my Bed, bedding and Trunks with what close are in it. I have no more to say but that you would give one of the Portraits to my dear friend Mary Young Columbia that travelling ^{here} from Aber Scotland in the year 71 years of age I am arrested by Death and am to be laid at the foot of a Beautiful Tree on the top of Mount Stacey (my conservation this place having, for merely no name) where Bob Robin sits on the summit and sings - I imagine the bottom of the tree to record the trail. I wish a very small grave stone to be erected on the bottom of the tree to record the trail. Francis Robertson. 15 Oct. 1819
