No. 10. In the Name of God Amen. I Henry Calwell grocer of City of Charleston, State of South Carolina, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, calling to mind the mortality of my body and that tis appointed for all men once to die, do now make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, first my mind and will is that all my just debts and funeral expences be duly paid and satisfied from cash that may be in hand which if not sufficient my Executors Administrators &c are hereby authorized to dispose of any personal property, which in their judgment shall seem meet, and appropriate it to that purpose, any overplus that may remain from aforesaid sales, after payment of debts and expences, are to be retained in hand until a general sale of all my personal property can be made with decency, soon as may be, which is my will and request and that the net proceeds of both be vested in bank stock, public securities or loaned out on lawful interest to such person or persons as shall be approved off by my said Executors and Wife Sarah Calwell, in such hands as they nominate to remain at Interest until my youngest child named Sarah Calwell, arrives at the full age of twenty one years, if death should prevent this, the next youngest, so on until they are all of full age, my mind and will further is that all my real property be rented out to best advantage and 20th not sold until my Children be all arrived at full age of twenty one years the interest accruing from monies loaned out and rents from all my landed property, to be appropriated for the joint support of my beloved Wife Sarah Calwell, and my Children Eliza, Sarah, c Mary and Henry Calwell until the youngest surviving Child be of full age, at which time my will is that all my property both real and personal be divided, between my Wife Sarah Calwell, and my Children that may then survive or live in an equal proportion share and share alike, my mind and will further is that if my said Wife should again marry that she shall thereby forfeit all claim both to share of annual interest, and the other real property, the whole to be applied to the use and behoof of my Children, Eliza, Sarah, c Mary and Henry Calwell, or any of them that may survive, immediately on her marriage for ever, and I do hereby declare this my last Will and Testament, revoking and hereby making void all former Wills, and I do appoint my worthy friends Philip c Hixon, Seth Yates and Samuel Rivers as Executors to this my last and only Will, dated September 14th 1801.

14th Nov. 12. In the Name of God Amen, I Nicholas Power late of the City of Waterford in Ireland, but now of Charleston in the State of South Carolina, being of sound mind, do make this my last Will and Testament in manner following, hereby revoking all will or wills hitherto made by me, wherein the Estate willed unto me, and my heirs by Thomas Eustace late of Charleston deceded, and which is confirmed to me by the honorable the Court of Equity in May term one thousand eight hundred and one, should be involved. First it is my will that all my just debts, with the funeral expences of my Son John who died in this City last summer and those of myself should it please God to call me, together with the incumbrances now effecting the said Estate, say the debt of one hundred and fourteen pounds $4\frac{1}{3}$ sterling due the late Executor Doctor James Lynch and decreed by the said Court to be paid him, and all costs and other matters which have or may accrue in consequence of the late suit and decree in equity, however or by whomsoever paid or secured to the parties, should be paid out of the first monies arising from the proceeds of said Estate either by rents or sale of the property, as my Executors hereafter nominated and appointed shall think and agree to be proper; a majority of whom shall be conclusive, and the said Estate so vested in me by the will of Thomas Eustace and confirmed by decree of the said Court of Equity is hereby made liable for and bound to the payment of the aforesaid and all other incumbrances which my said Executors may judge proper. For the services of M^{rs} Quigly during my late severe indisposition, and for that charitable care and attention which she afforded me, in her own house, I leave and bequeath unto her the sum of thirty pounds sterling to be paid out of the first monies arising out of the said Estate after the first mentioned incumbrances are discharged. Should my Son Maurice Power now of Waterford arrive here, prior to his being put in possession of the
