I William Rutledge being of sound mind but bad health declare this to be my last Will and Testament. Every claim I may have against any one, and every thing I may have at my death I bequeath and leave to my Brother Frederick Rutledge Esq and recommend to his peculiar care and kindness my Wenck Sally. It is my particular request to be buried very privately, along side of my child Ann Costlet Rutledge in the grave yard of St Michaels Church the funeral Service to be read over me at the house I may die at, no invitation to be given to any one, no notice to be taken of my death in the news papers, no crape mourning or any of that nonsense and to be conveyed to my grave as early as possible at the beating of the Morning Drum my Coffin to be made of Northern Pine Wood covered with Black Bays. In Witness whereof I fix my hand and Seal this
