

4.5. 4.33. this only as my last Will and Testament, I do hereby appoint my sons John and James my Executors. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written:

Joshua Ward Esq.

Witnesses. James Macbeth - William Dawson - George Chisolm
Proved before Charles Living Esquire A.C.T.D. February 26. 1802.
At same time qualified James Ward Executor. August 24. 1802. Qualified John Ward Executor.
14. 3. 2. 3. 6. 2.

State of South Carolina.

In the Name of God Amen, I John Parker of the Parish of St. James's Goose Creek, in the State aforesaid, do make this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, first I direct that at my funeral, all pomp and ostentation be carefully avoided, and that none but relations, neighbours and particular friends be invited thereto. Next as to my Estate both real and personal (excepting such part or parts of either, as my Executors, or the majority of them may find it expedient to dispose of in payment of my debts, and which I then by empower them, or the majority of them at their discretion and election to do, should they deem it proper) I give devise and bequeath the same, to my Wife Mary, during the term of her natural life. Next on the death of my said Wife, I give and bequeath unto my Son John Parker his Executors, Administrators and assigns, all Prince the Carpenter, commonly called yellow Prince, my pen in Goose Creek Church, and my furniture at Keys, us and in full of his share or dividend of my Estate. Next on the death of my said Wife, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Parker her Executors, Administrators and assigns all my plate. Next on the death of my said Wife, I give and bequeath unto my Son William McKennie Parker his Executors, Administrators and assigns my Negro Wench named Phillis with her Son Plenty, also my Wench Flora. Next it is my will and I do hereby empower my Executors, or the survivor of them, or the Executor of such survivor, on the death of my said Wife, and after all my debts whatever are paid, to divide either by a sale or otherwise should they think fit, the rest and residue of my Estate, both real and personal, not herein before disposed of otherwise, into two equal parts, which I dispose of as follows, one part thereof I give devise and bequeath to my said Executors, or the survivor of them, or the Executor of such survivor, during the life of my daughter Jane Scott, in trust to permit her, during her natural life, to have the use, income, or profits of the same, free from the controul and intermeddling of her sons husband, or any husband or husbands she may hereafter have, not to be liable to their debts, and in short as if she were and would be always a feme sole, and on the death of my said daughter, I give devise and bequeath the same to such child or children of hers, as she may leave living at her death, his her or their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for ever, if more than one as tenants in common but should my said daughter die, leaving no child or children of her living at her death, then and in such case I give devise and bequeath the same, to such of my children as may be then living, and the child or children of such child or children of mine as may be then dead, his her or their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for ever, if more than one as tenants in common, the child or children of such child or children of mine as may be then dead, representing his her or their respective parent or parents and taking such part or proportion of the same as his her or their respective parent or parents would have been intitled to, if then living, the other part thereof I give devise and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Parker her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for ever. Lastly I appoint my sons John, Thomas and William, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of March, in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one.

John Parker Esq.

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by the Testator, as and for his last Will and Testament, in our presence, who at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as Witnesses thereto, the words my driver Champaign and the child or children being first erased with a pen.

John Parker - James Ferguson - Lambert Gough Lance.

Proved before Charles Living Esquire A.C.T.D. March 1. 1802. At same time qualified William McKennie Parker Executor. March 30. 1802. Qualified Thomas Parker Executor.

Examined
8. 2. 3. 6. 2.
14. 3. 6.

In the Name of God Amen, I James Kitten of the Parish of St. James's Goose Creek, in the State of South Carolina, do make this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, first I direct that at my funeral, all pomp and ostentation be carefully avoided, and that none but relations, neighbours and particular friends be invited thereto. Next as to my Estate both real and personal (excepting such part or parts of either, as my Executors, or the majority of them may find it expedient to dispose of in payment of my debts, and which I then by empower them, or the majority of them at their discretion and election to do, should they deem it proper) I give devise and bequeath the same, to my Wife Mary, during the term of her natural life. Next on the death of my said Wife, I give and bequeath unto my Son John Parker his Executors, Administrators and assigns, all Prince the Carpenter, commonly called yellow Prince, my pen in Goose Creek Church, and my furniture at Keys, us and in full of his share or dividend of my Estate. Next on the death of my said Wife, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Parker her Executors, Administrators and assigns all my plate. Next on the death of my said Wife, I give and bequeath unto my Son William McKennie Parker his Executors, Administrators and assigns my Negro Wench named Phillis with her Son Plenty, also my Wench Flora. Next it is my will and I do hereby empower my Executors, or the survivor of them, or the Executor of such survivor, on the death of my said Wife, and after all my debts whatever are paid, to divide either by a sale or otherwise should they think fit, the rest and residue of my Estate, both real and personal, not herein before disposed of otherwise, into two equal parts, which I dispose of as follows, one part thereof I give devise and bequeath to my said Executors, or the survivor of them, or the Executor of such survivor, during the life of my daughter Jane Scott, in trust to permit her, during her natural life, to have the use, income, sound mind and memory and understanding, considering the uncertainty of this transitory life, do make publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say, after my funeral charges and all my just debts, I give and bequeath unto Alexander Wallace all my worldly goods and effects whatsoever to me belonging, or which be owing or coming unto me, hereby revoking all former Will or Wills by me heretofore made. In Witness whereof I have herunto set my hand and seal this 22. day of February in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two.

James Hillier (Ld)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named as and for his last Will and Testament, in presence of us who have subscribed our Names herunto as Witnesses.

Frederick Hutcheon (Ld) Daniel Jones (Ld) Daniel Cook (Ld)

Proved before Charles Lining Esquire C. T. J. D. March 5. 1802.

1792. 2. 3. 6. 2.

45. 1. 37. In the Name of God Amen, I Robert Burdell being by the blessing of Almighty God, in sound mind and perfect memory calling to mind the immortality of all men do make this my last Will and Testament, imploring the mercy of my Almighty Creator and merciful favour to forgive me all my sins and receive my soul into his heavenly kingdom, first I will that my body be decently buried and that all my just debts be paid by my Executors & first I give and bequeath unto my well beloved Wife Elizabeth Cater Burdell my household furniture and four cows and calves and all the other property I got by her to remain in her possession as long as she is alive and after her death to return to her children, and all my other property to be equally divided between and amongst my children Joseph Burdell and Robert Francis Burdell. And lastly I do appoint my well beloved Wife Elizabeth Cater Burdell Executrix and my beloved friend Gabriel Gignillat and my beloved nephew Peter Robert Witter my Executors to this my last Will Testament, wherein to set my hand this 25. of September the Year of our Lord 1801. Lastly I wish and desire my Widow to have her maintenance of my Estate as long as she continues a Widow and to draw a full share of all that may be made by her part &c

Robert Burdell.

Witnesses - Francis Marion - John Godfray

Proved by Testae of a Testimonium from Charles Lining Esquire (Ld) before Paul Warley Esquire. December 30. 1801. At same time qualified Elizabeth Cater Burdell Executrix.

1792. 2. 3. 6. 2.

14. 3. 41.

Before me undersigned Simon Jude Chamagnie, Agent of the General Commissariat of the French Republic, invested with the administration of the Commissariat of Charleston State of South Carolina, in presence of the Witnesses hereafter named and undersigned. Was present the Citizen Françoise Pauline Josephine Destach, Widow of Philippe Patiot, when living a Captain in the Regiment of the Cape, a native of Argumine in the German Lorraine, aged about forty four years, found in an upper room, situated East and South of the house which she occupies in King Street N^o 119, sick in her bed, but however sound in her mind, memory, judgment and understanding, as has appeared to me the aforesaid Agent and the Witnesses hereafter named and undersigned. Who has required my receiving her last dispositions and in consequence thereof has dictated word named to me word for word her present Testament in the manner which follows. I name and appoint as my sole and as much as may be needful my only child Jeanne Augustine Patiot residing with me, to whom I bequeath the whole of whatever Estate and property I will leave on the day of my decease, to the use and enjoyment of which she shall be entitled as her own property, from the day of my decease. And for the execution of this my present Testament I name and appoint both the Citizens Hector Depestre and Laurent Haures, residing in this City of Charleston whom I request to be so kind as to take this trouble in common. So it was done, dictated and named word for word, by the said Citizen Françoise Pauline Josephine Destach, Widow of Philippe Patiot to me the undersigned Agent in presence of the aforesaid Witnesses, and by me read and handed over to the said Citizen Testatrix in presence of the same Witnesses which present Testament the said Citizen Testatrix has declared well to understand and comprehend and that such are her last intention in which she persists, declares moreover the said Testatrix to revoke all other Testaments and Codicils which she might have made before willing that this present had its full and entire effect, as containing her last Will. Done and passed in the room before described the 14. Year of the French Republic and the ninth day of Ventose at 4 o'clock in the Afternoon, in presence of the Citizens