In the Name of God Amen, I John Frederick Wolf of the City of Charleston in the State aforesaid Grocer, being at present weak in body and flesh, but of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and wishing to prepare a timely disposition of my temporal concerns, do hereby make my last Will and Testament in manner and form following. That is to say, first I recommend my soul to the grace and mercy of God, who gave it, and my body I resign to the earth, to be buried in a decent and Christian like manner, with regard to my worldly affairs it is my will and desire that all my just and lawful debts shall be paid as soon as it can be conveniently done after my decease and for that purpose I appropriate such debts, as are due to my Estate and the proceeds of my Shop goods, which may be sold publicly or privately for cash to be applied towards the speedy extinguishment of my debts as far as they will require to be taken from the foregoing funds. I then it is my will and desire that my beloved Wife Margaret Wolf shall have the remainder of the monies arising from the sale of my Shop goods or from the debts due to my Estate after my debts are paid and she shall also have and hold during her natural life my house and lot in Union Street whereon I now reside, my house and lot adjoining the foregoing premises to the South, my lot and buildings at the corner of Middle and Minority Streets on Federal Green, all my household and kitchen furniture, bedding linen clothing and other effects or articles of what name or kind soever fit for or used in housekeeping, and likewise such of my Negroes, as she may choose to keep, with power to sell either of my Negroes at any time publicly or privately for cash or upon credit. I then I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Elizabeth Catharine Wolf and to the Child or

129 Children which may be born of my Wife before (or within nine months after) my decease my lots and buildings in Maiden Lane lately bought by me of John Oberley's Estate, the said premises to be either divided between them by their mutual consent without a sale, when the youngest of them shall arrive to the age of twenty one years or if any of them will not agree to a division of the premises without a sale, then to be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, but whether divided without or by the means of a sale in either case each of the Children is to have an equal proportion of the value or proceeds of the premises. In the mean time before such division takes place the rents of the premises shall belong to my Children, and be appropriated for their educa-tion and support as far as may be requisite, the remainder of such income if any be left, to be put out on interest or vested in some propo-sition that will or may produce an interest for them. Item it is my will and desire that if either of my Children should die before mar-riage or under age the survivor or survivors of them shall be entitled to the same proportion of and in the aforesaid lots and buildings which would have belonged to the deceased if he or she had lived to be married or to be of age, but if all my Children should die before marriage or under age, then and in that case it is my will and desire, that the property left to them by me as aforesaid shall remain for the use benefit and income of my Wife during her natural life, and after her death the whole of my Estate shall be sold at public auction for cash, provided none of our Chil-dren are alive at the time of her decease, and the neat proceeds of such sale or sales shall be divided as follows viz if my Wife should leave

130 issue from a succeeding husband, such Issue is to have one moiety, and the other moiety shall go in two equal parts namely one part to my Wife's Brother and Sisters in equal shares or to the heirs of their bodies respectively and the other part to my Sister Magdalena Weissenbacher, my brother John G. Wolf and my Nephew George Wolf Junior son of my brother George Gottlieb Wolf in equal shares or to the heirs of their bodies respectively, and if any of the afore mentioned persons should die without bodily issue lawfully begotten before such division takes place the others who are in the same class with the deceased shall inherit his or her proportion so as to keep my Wife and my relations distinct according to the above regulation, but if it should so happen, that my Wife should depart this life and leave one or more of my Children and no other issue, then my Child or Children shall have the whole what I left to her, but if besides my Child or Children she should leave another or others then it is my will and desire that the landed property bequeathed to her by me as aforesaid, shall belong to her Children jointly, to be sold and equally divided between them when the youngest arrives to the age of twenty one years as well as the personal property, but still all the moveable effects and negroes shall be sold directly for cash, and what monies can then be conveniently spared after reserving sufficient funds for the support and education of her issue or Children, shall meanwhile be put out on interest or vested in some property, that may or will produce an interest. If it should be the case that after the death of my Wife and our Children, the latter dying unmarried or under age, no bodily issue

If my Wife should live then my whole Estate is to be sold at public auction for cash and be divided in two equal halves one half to be given to her brother and sisters equally the other half to be given to my sister, brother and Nephew above named equally, and upon the death of either of them before such division the same regulations are to be observed, as were stated above in case of issue being left by my Wife from a succeeding husband. I do give and bequeath the within mentioned property to my Wife's Margaret Wolf in lieu and bar of and as a full satisfaction for her dower thirds and any other claim or demand, which she may or doth have on or against my Estate, but her income from my Estate shall be entirely at her own disposal without giving an account thereof or of its application. Lastly I do hereby nominate and constitute and appoint my Wife Margaret Wolf as and for Executrix of this my last Will and Testament, and my friends John Christopher Faber and John George Wurdeman as and for Executors of this my last Will and Testament, giving them and either of them full power and authority to act according to their discretion in the premises though in a conscientious manner and conformably to the directions contained in this instrument, which I declare to be and contain my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all others by me made at any time before. In Witness whereof I have hereunto put my hand and seal at Charleston this twenty fifth day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand and eight hundred.

John Frederick Wolf (Sd.)

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by Frederick Wolf as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who in his presence, at his request and in the presence of each other have put our names as Witnesses thereto.
