

J.D. 1844. At the same time qualified John Langton Executor.

168^o

N^o 23.

In the Name of God Amen. I John Reid of the City of Charleston in the State of South Carolina, being weak in body but of sound mind and disposing memory blessed be God therefor, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner following to wit. First I commend my immortal Soul to Almighty God, through the infinite merits and satisfaction of the Divine Atonement. then as to my worldly estate my will is that all my just debts be paid and satisfied, and I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Margaret M. Reid, one fourth part of all my real and personal estates whatsoever fully and absolutely subject to this reservation and limitation only, that if she should marry again then the said property to be vested in her free and apart from ^{the control} or intermeddling of any future husband and from any of his debts or engagements the rents and profits thereof to be by her received to and for her separate and sole use, by any writing under her proper signature, also I give and bequeath unto my three beloved children, John Henry Reid, Mary Eliza Reid and Anna Moffat Reid, to each of them share and share alike the remainder of all my Estate real and personal to be equally divided between them or the Survivors of them on the eldest attaining the age of Twenty one. again or my said daughter being married with consent of her dear mother or a lawful guardian.

lish and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner following) to wit. First I commend my immortal Soul to Almighty God, through the infinite merits and satisfaction of the Divine Atonement. then as to my worldly estate my will is that all my debts be paid and satisfied, and I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Margaret M. Reid, one fourth part of all my real and personal estates whatsoever fully and absolutely subject to this reservation and limitation only, that if she should marry again then the said property to be vested in her free and apart from ^{the control} or intermeddling of any future husband and from any of his debts or engagements the rents and profits thereof to be by her received to and for her separate and sole use, by any writing) under her proper signature; also I give and bequeath unto my three beloved children, John Henry Reid, Mary Eliza Reid and Anna Moffat Reid, to each of them share and Share alike the remainder of all my Estate real and personal to be equally divided between them or the Survivors of them on the eldest attaining the age of Twenty one years or my said daughter being married with consent of her dear mother or a lawful guardian. And I do hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife, before named, the Executor and my dear brother Sam

Executor of this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills by me heretofore made. John Reid (S) Signed sealed published and declared by the Testator as his last Will and Testament and by us in his presence and in the presence of one other subscribed in attestation thereof.

Robert Ogden Anna Moffet Elizabeth Reid.

Proved before James D. Stillehill Esq C. & J. D. August 25. 1819.

At the same time qualified James Reid Executor.

State of South Carolina. In the Name of God Amen. I Mary Magdalena Inglis Thomas, now wife of James Thomas of the City of Charleston in the said State Merchant, being sick and weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding praised be God for the same, do hereby in presence and exercise of the Power and authority given and reserved to me, in and by the Settlement made previous to my marriage with the said James Thomas, and by force and virtue of all and every the power and powers, authorities and authority in me being or enabling me thereto, make and declare my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say, Imprimis, I give devise and bequeath