14 B. N. 18. In the Name of God. This is my Will written with my own hand which I make sound in mind, tho' sick in body, to guard against events which might prevent me from making it with as much knowledge, judgment and reflection as I am now capable of doing. I declare that all the effects, furniture and slaves which now are in the house I occupy, excepting my wearing apparel, a golden box, which is the only jewel I have saved from the fire at Savannah, and the negro slaves Victor and Lafler, belong to and are the property of the free negro woman named Melanie, otherwise called Turnie. I declare that I was appointed Executor of the Estate of the late Andrew Lemaitre who died in Savannah in the State of Georgia, my Executors will find among my papers my account with the said Estate and the vouchers relative to the Administration of the same. I further declare that I have pecuniary concerns with H. G. Flimely Merchant of this City, which concerns will be settled by my Executors, and in order to give the said Flimely a mark of my esteem and confidence, it is my will and intention that he shall have the use of the balance which may be found due to my Estate during nine months from and after my decease, without interest. I name and constitute my heir and universal legatee, of all my property generally whatsoever, wherever it may be, to whatever sum it may amount and of whatever nature it may be, my only Son Jean Francois Boutinot Desrivaux, born of my marriage with Miss She adore Prompte my wife which said Son probably now is in the Island of St Domingo. I also nominate him Executor of such parts only of my Estate as are in the aforesaid Island of St Domingo or in France, and I will and intend that in his joint capacity of heir and Executor, he shall take and possess the same on the day of my decease. In case of the death of my said Son either before
