I Joseph D. Lafar of the City of Charleston and State aforesaid, being at present of sound mind, memory and understanding, but considering the uncertainty of Human life I do hereby make my last Will and Testament, in the manner and form following. That is to say I bequeath to my beloved Sister Catherine Lafar the following negroes / men / Long Tom, Steam, and Sam. All the rest of my property both real and personal of whatsoever nature, after my just and lawfull debts are paid, I give and bequeath to my affectionate Mother Catherine Lafar during her natural life, and after her death, the same shall be sold and the proceeds equally divided between my two Sisters Catherine and Mary Lafar. And I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint John Strocker, & Sam^l Murley Executors of this my last Will and Testament. Hereby revoking all others by me at any time made. I witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty fifth ^{hundred} day of July one thousand eight, and eighteen.
