

1.25 I Binkey Huger of Charleston in the State of South Carolina, do by this my writing purporting to be my last Will and Testament dispose of all my worldly Estate, pursuant and according to the Authority to me given by a decretal order of the Honorable the Court of Chancery of this State, and by Virtue thereof, and by Virtue of all other rights, powers and authorities vested in me by any manner of means whatsoever, It is my intention that all my Estate real and personal should eventually be vested in my Children, and that they alone, should reap the benefit and receive the emoluments thereof, but their tender and inexperienced years, prevents me from bequeathing it immediately to their own management, and circumstances may intervene which would determine me to make a different distribution and allotment of it among them, than what I should now do, was I to bequeath it immediately and absolutely to them, I am therefore induced from these considerations to appoint Trustees in whom the whole of my Estate may be vested for the benefit of my Children, but giving at the same time the most ample powers to my said Trustees to make such allotment of my Estate among my Children, as I shall from time to time think proper to direct by any memorandum or instructions in writing signed with my own hand, or in default of such memorandum or instruction as they my said Trustees shall think proper. In pursuance therefore of such intention, I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to my Honored Mother Sabina Elliott, my brother in law Colonel Lewis C Morris, and my friends General Charles Cotesworth Pinckney and Major Thomas Pinckney and the survivors and survivor of them, and the heirs, executors and administrators of such survivor all and singular my Estate real and personal, whosoever and whatsoever, and whether the same be in possession, remainder or reversion, to have and to hold the same to them, and the survivors and survivor of them, and the heirs, executors and administrators of such survivor for ever, on the especial trust and confidence, that they will divide and allot the same among my Children in such proportions and at such times as I shall by any memorandum or instructions in writing signed with my own hand limit or appoint, and in default of such memorandum or instructions, that they will divide and allot the same among my said Children on their respectively attaining the age of twenty one years or day of marriage which may first happen in such proportions as they the said trustees or the survivors or survivor of them or the heirs, executors or administrators of such survivor may think fit, and that they in the mean time make such allowance for the maintenance and education of my Children as they may think proper. And thereby constitute the said Trustees Executrix and Executors of this my Will, and direct that they and the survivors and survivor of them, and the heirs, executors and administrators of such survivor be the sole expounders and interpreters of any memorandum or instructions I may make or leave, requesting them to put such construction and interpretation thereon as they in their consciences believe is consistent with my intentions, without regarding technical words or forms. And with the strongest reliance on the honor and friendship of my said Trustees I bequeath my Children to their care and protection. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fifteenth day of October in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty six.
