No 1. I, James Holmes of Charleston, considering the uncertainty of life, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament.
First. My just debts & Funeral Expenses to be paid, one of which debts is my note to the Insurance Company, for the payment of which I wish my slave Bella & her children sold.
I then give and bequeath to my mother M^{rs} Margaret Holmes (from whom I received him) my negro boy John, to be disposed of as she thinks proper. I also give and bequeath to my ^{mother} the Semi-annual Income or dividends upon Ten of my Shares in the Bank of the United States during her life time.
After the decease of my mother, I give and bequeath the said Ten Shares in the United States Bank to my Sisters Sarah Steele and Jane Eliza Steele, share and share alike. All the rest and residues of my property of whatever nature or kind, I give and bequeath unto my wife Sarah Holmes, whom I hereby appoint Executrix of this my last Will and Testament. Witness my Hand and Seal at Charleston this Sixth July One thousand eight hundred and Twenty.
