14th Nov. 12. In the Name of God Amen, I Nicholas Power late of the City of Waterford in Ireland, but now of Charleston in the State of South Carolina, being of sound mind, do make this my last Will and Testament in manner following, hereby revoking all will or wills hitherto made by me, wherein the Estate willed unto me, and my heirs by Thomas Eustace late of Charleston deceded, and which is confirmed to me by the honorable the Court of Equity in May term one thousand eight hundred and one, should be involved. First it is my will that all my just debts, with the funeral expences of my Son John who died in this City last summer and those of myself should it please God to call me, together with the incumbrances now effecting the said Estate, say the debt of one hundred and fourteen pounds $4\frac{1}{3}$ sterling due the late Executor Doctor James Lynch and decreed by the said Court to be paid him, and all costs and other matters which have or may accrue in consequence of the late suit and decree in equity, however or by whomsoever paid or secured to the parties, should be paid out of the first monies arising from the proceeds of said Estate either by rents or sale of the property, as my Executors hereafter nominated and appointed shall think and agree to be proper; a majority of whom shall be conclusive, and the said Estate so vested in me by the will of Thomas Eustace and confirmed by decree of the said Court of Equity is hereby made liable for and bound to the payment of the aforesaid and all other incumbrances which my said Executors may judge proper. For the services of M^{rs} Quigly during my late severe indisposition, and for that charitable care and attention which she afforded me, in her own house, I leave and bequeath unto her the sum of thirty pounds sterling to be paid out of the first monies arising out of the said Estate after the first mentioned incumbrances are discharged. Should my Son Maurice Power now of Waterford arrive here, prior to his being put in possession of the 206 said Estate in conformity to the will of Thomas Eustace deceased. My Executors to this my last Will and Testament are hereby directed and enjoined to see all the foregoing incumbrances and legacies for nurse tending services &c. duly discharged. And in case my said Son Maurice should die before he or his heirs can legally be possessed of the residue of said Estate, then it is my will that after the month of August one thousand eight hundred and two, the whole of said Estate be sold by my said Executors to the best advantage as they may agree on and of the nett proceeds thereof after the afore mentioned and all other charges which may attend the transaction that two thirds thereof be remitted to Waterford to my friend and relative Martin Gorman of said City tanner imposing on him the indispensable obligation of complying with and fulfilling a certain will and power now in his possession, and which was executed by me prior to my leaving Waterford for this Continent in the Year eight hundred and one. I am it is my will that the remaining one third of the nett proceeds of said sale of said Estate be at ^{the} disposal of my Executors and their assigns for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Church of Charleston as they may deem proper. And I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint the Rev^d. Simon Felix O'Gallagher, Edmund Head Phelan and Samuel Corbell of the City of Charleston Executors to this my last Will and Testament declaring and publishing this as my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this sixteenth day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one and of Independence of the U. S. A. the twenty sixth.

Nicholas Pover (Sd)
