

I the said John Willkes have hereunto set my hands and seal - Revoking all former Wills.

John ^{his} Willkes
mark

Signed sealed published and declared by the testator in the presence of each other subscribing Witnesses to be his last Will and Testament.
Witness - Gottlieb Wite - John Thomas - John Larry -

Passed before James D. Mitchell Esquire, C. & J. D. October 16th 1818, At the same time qualified Jennis Vonholden Executor.

Exam?
260: Sh:
D. M.

16 N.
N. 5.

State of South Carolina. In the Name of God Amen. I, Patrick Swamy of the City of Charleston being sick and weak of body, but of sound disposing mind and memory, bleped be God for the same, and calling to mind that it is the lot of all men to die, therefore I think it my great duty to dispose and declare the way I wish the property with which Heaven has bleped shall go after the termination of my mortal life. And first. It is my Will and desire that my funeral expences and my just debts shall first of all be faithfully paid as soon as convenient by my Executor to be herein after named and legally appointed. And it is my Will and desire that after the payment of my said debts and expences, that the Sum of One thousand Dollars shall be given to my sister Mary now Mary Hendrick of Shreen in that part of the Exam?

260: Sh:
D. M.

United Kingdom of Great Britain called Ireland to her and her heirs for ever and also I give and bequeath to Francis J. McLean my freedom the two Acres of Wood on the Lot of land which I purchased from Jonathan Lucas and situate I think in a street called Norton Street; and I give and bequeath to my cousin Mrs. Tegan the sum of One thousand Dollars to be paid to her in the following manner to wit, three hundred Dollars to be paid by my Executor as soon as may be and one hundred Dollars every year after until the whole sum is drawn out of the hands of my said Executor and in case of her death while any of the said sum is yet unpaid then the said remaining sum to be paid to whom she may appoint. And also I give and bequeath to my respected friend Simon F. Gallagher the clergyman, for many years the Pastor of the Roman Catholic Church the sum of Five hundred Dollars as a small testimony of esteem and veneration which I have for him. And also I wish that my cousin Mrs. Tegan shall by no means be dispossessed of the House in which she now lives, but that the said Francis J. McLean shall be barred from disturbing her during the continuance of her natural life in case she may think fit to remain in the said House and tenement, but in case she shall wish to leave the House and Tenement and give up the same then the said Francis J. McLean may enter and possess himself of the same. And it is my Will and desire, that the residue and remainder of my Estate may be left in the hands of my Executor.

and dispose himself of the same. And it is my Will and desire, that the residue and remainder of my Estate may be left in the hands of my friend Bartholomew Black to be disposed of by him in favor of and for the benefit of the poor distressed or unfortunate of whatever nation and description whatsoever, to be applied by him at his discretion in the way and to the persons he may think proper objects of such gift or to be retained by him in the manner he may think fit and no other.
And I do by this ^{my} Last Will and Testament constitute and appoint my said friend Bartholomew Black my alone and sole Executor of this my said Last Will revoking all and every other Will formerly by me made.
In witness whereof I have this day to wit, the sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, set my hand and affixed my Seal.

Patrick Aweeney
Signed, Sealed, published and declared as and for his last Will and testament by the said Patrick Aweeney in our presence who then and there and in the presence of one another signed our names as witnesses to the legal Execution of the same.

Leoprost Evans. John Reed. Samuel Abbott.

Proved before James D. Mitchell Esquire, Ch. J. D. October 16th 1818
At the same time qualified Bartholomew Black Executor.