City of Charleston being sick and weak of body but of sound and disposing mind and memory (thanks be to God for the same, and deeply considering my Mortality and knowing that it is Ordered and appointed for all men once to die, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs while I have strength and capacity to do, do make ordain and publish this my last Will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made First and principally I commit my Soul into the hands of my Creator who gave it, and my body to the Earth to be buried with decent Humility without shew or ostentation at the discretion of my Executors to be hereinafter named, as to such worldly Estate wherewith it hath been pleased God to intrust me I dispose of the same as follows I mprimis it is my Will and desire that all my Just debts be paid out of such Accounts debts and demands which may be due and owing to me at the time of my death, as soon as my Executors may in their discretion think convenient, It is my Will and desire and I do hereby devise and bequeath to my respected Mother Mrs Phillis Campbell and to my beloved Sister Mary Campbell the House and Lot in Queen Street designated by the (N^o.
