

and children of Wells, and rendered in Mr. Hunt's office, Commissioner of Equity, it will be found the Estate of Wells is indebted to me near on to ten thousand Dollars, but be the Balance due me what it may, I desire that all my just-debts which I might have contracted be paid by my Executor here after named and then the balance be put at Interest in the purchase of some stock, for the Benefit of my present wife and her infant children by me; also all my other property of every kind and that five dollars be paid to each of my children by my first wife whenever demanded after a settlement can be made, I also beg and pray that suitable attention be paid to my dear wife, and should my little boy live, that I beg some little attention to his education; Lastly I nominate and appoint, Wm Smith Junr. my lawful Executor, of this my last Will and testament given under my hands and Seal the 20th July 1819 and the 44th year of American Independence.
