In the Name of God, Amen, I Richard Corfield late of Shrovsberry in Shropshire in England, but now of this City, Sadler being weak, but of sound mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of human life, do recommend my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the earth, in hopes of a joyful resurrection; as to my worldly Estate, I do hereby order and direct, that immediately after my decease, that my Executor herein after named, do sell and dispose of all my Effects, and Estate, either real or personal at public sale to the highest bidder, and after first paying all debts due by me, in my life time, or what may accrue, after my decease, I give and bequeath unto my dear Mother, Elizabeth Corfield of Shrovsberry in Shropshire in England all the rest, residue and remainder of my aforesaid Estate, and I do hereby order, and direct my said Executor herein after named to have me interred in a decent manner (the order and regulation of which I leave to his discretion) also it is my request that my Executor transmit and forward as soon as convenient after my decease to John Thomas, of Philadelphia Sadler the debt I owe him, being about three hundred and fifty dollars, being justly due him. It is my Will that the part of my Estate left to my dear c^{ms} Mother Elizabeth Corfield, be to her and her assigns for ever. Lastly I nominate and appoint my friend Thomas Sparks of Charleston Sadler my true and sole Executor to this my last Will and Test.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal, this second day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred.

Richard Corfield (Esq.)
