

By a power of the Court of Chancery of this District filed 12 June 1846, the said will was admitted to probate and the said Richard H. Loring was appointed executor of the same. The said will was admitted to probate and the said Richard H. Loring was appointed executor of the same.
The original of this will is on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the Eastern District of South Carolina at Charleston.
The original of this will is on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the Eastern District of South Carolina at Charleston.
The original of this will is on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the Eastern District of South Carolina at Charleston.

In the name of God Amen I Richard H Loring Box 35 being feeble in health but of sound mind memory & understanding do declare the following to be my last will and Testament. I give devise & bequeath unto my beloved wife Susan M Loring the whole of my Estate Real & personal of whatsoever nature or kind to have and hold the same for and during the term of her natural life and should she depart this life leaving no Children then I direct the same to be divided equally between her Sisters or such Sister as may be living and the issue of such as may have departed this life such issue to represent the parent but should she leave Children to such Children absolutely and forever And I do appoint her Executors and my brothers Edward & Thomas Executors of this my last will and Testament Witness my hand and seal at Charleston Neck this 28 July 1846

Richard H Loring
Signed sealed and delivered in the presence of us who in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereto subscribed our names Thos O Condy Wm J Sanders Geo. Hoarig Proved

42 Proved before Thomas Lure Esq. Dec 4th 8 August 1846. August 10th 1846 qualified Mr. Susan M Living Precentor

State of S<sup>c</sup> Carolina J A M Lord of the City of Charleston do hereby make this my last will and Testament. First I will and desire that all my just debts be paid after which I bequeath to my son John Lord my watch Rifle and any one of the horses which he shall be at liberty to choose In the next place I bequeath unto my grandson William A Sully my double barrel gun and barrel lock as to such property real and personal which I now possess or have a claim to or may hereafter possess or have a claim to I devise and bequeath the same to my three little daughters Margaret Elizabeth & Feline forever to be equally divided between them as they respectively become of age or on the day of marriage of any one of them. The survivor or survivors however at these respective periods as the case may be to take the property hereby devised and bequeathed to my three said daughters Lastly I do appoint Richard Lord and my son