

South Carolina. In the Name of God Amen. I Robert Lary of the city of Charleston, and a State of South Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory - and aware of the uncertainty of life; do make this my last Will and Testament in words following - that is to say; My lawful debts and funeral expences are to be paid by my Executor hereinafter named as soon after my decease and may be possible, and as to my worldly Estate, the same I dispose of as follows. I will devise and bequeath unto my beloved daughter Susan Eliza Langton, the wife of my friend John Langton, to her and her heirs forever, all that piece part or parcel of a Town lot of land situate lying and being in Church Street between Saint Philips Church and the Centre Market, in the City of Charleston aforesaid, heretofore known in the plan of the said Town by the Number one hundred & sixty six (166) measuring in front on the west side of Church Street aforesaid thirty seven feet more or less and in depth Westwardly from Church Street aforesaid two hundred and twenty feet more or less, measuring on the West end from South to North fifty one feet more or less, which said lot is bounded on the South by a lot of land belonging ^{to} John J. Schnell, on the North by a lot of land belonging to the Hon.
William Johnson, to the West on a lot of land belonging to Gilbert Davidson, now occupied by J. Schiner & son Smith, running out of Meeting Street, and to the East on Church Street aforesaid and
