In the Name of God Amen; I Edward Brown & Novell of Charleston, in the State aforesaid, being in sound health and mind, but being aware of the uncertainty of all things do think it fit at this time to make a Will which I do declare to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all Wills at any time heretofore made by me. In the first place, I request all debts justly due by me may be paid off, but I do specially order, will and direct that if any accounts or debts may be brought against my Estate, which are barred by the Statute of Limitation, that my Executors shall not pay the same, as I have suffered very materially by the operation of that act, in cases wherein I have been creditor. In the second place, I give and bequeath to my dear Wife Margaret Novell all and singular my Estates, lands, tenements and hereditaments, both real and personal, whatsoever and wheresoever without any impeachment of waste, during the natural term of her life and afterwards, to my Children by her or such of them, or the heirs lawfully begotten, of them as shall be alive at the time of her decease, the whole of the heirs of any Child, only to have a Child's share among them, and thirdly and lastly I do nominate, constitute and appoint my said Wife Margaret Novell my Executrix and Gilbert Davidson of Charleston Merchant my Executor in Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twelfth day of July 1800.

Sealed and delivered in the presence of

William Gibson - James Wilson - James Dealey

Whereas I have by my aforesaid Will devised and bequeathed to my dear Wife all my Estate, real and personal without impeachment of waste, during the term of her natural life, and no longer. Now I do by this Codicil to my said Will confirm the said devise and bequest, declaring the same to be in lieu of dower, and further I do subject the income of my said Estate, during the term it shall be in the hands of my said Wife, to be liable to the liberal maintenance support and education of my Children during their minority without any charge whatsoever against them or either of them. And upon the death of my said Wife, I then give devise and bequeath my said Estate to my Children, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for ever in the manner mentioned in my Will. And I also order my friend Robert Rowand Esquire to be another Executor of my said last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have to this Codicil set my hand and seal this eighteenth day of September 1801.

14th C. C. T. D. 35. In the Name of God Amen, I Sarah Waring Bee of the State of South Carolina, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and perfect memory, and willing to settle my worldly concerns, do make, ordain and appoint this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all other Wills by me heretofore made. In Premises I do give and bequeath (after the full payment and discharge of all my just debts and accepting the legacies hereafter given and bequeathed) unto my beloved Mother Mary Bee all the Estate real and personal I may be possessed of at the time of my decease, during her natural life, and after her decease, it is my Will and desire that it shall go to my beloved brother Thomas Smith to him and his heirs for ever, but should my said Mother Mary Bee survive my said brother Thomas Smith, then in such case it is my Will and desire that all the said Estate so devised and bequeathed shall be at the entire and sole disposal of my said Mother Mary Bee. I give and bequeath unto my beloved Aunt Sarah Hutchinson two hundred pounds to be paid her in two equal yearly instalments that is to say, one hundred pounds to be paid twelve months after my decease and one hundred pounds at the expiration of twelve months after. I give and bequeath unto my beloved friend and adopted Sister Ann Purcell a mourning ring, of her choice, to be worn in remembrance of me. And lastly I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said Mother Mary Bee Executrix and my said brother Thomas Smith Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I the said Sarah Waring Bee have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirty first day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one.
