

14th of my Wife Rebecca and my daughters Jane, Susanna and Elizabeth until my daughter Elizabeth arrives at the age of twenty one years or marries it is then my Will that my said Estate both real and personal be sold and the monies arising therefrom be equally divided between my Wife Rebecca and said daughters Jane, Susanna and Elizabeth or the survivor or survivors of them share and share alike. The aforesaid bequests I give to my Wife in lieu of dower or any other right or title whatever it is, also my will that my said daughters be entitled to live in my house while they remain unmarried. Lastly I nominate and appoint my loving Wife Rebecca Executrix and my friend James Legare Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness thereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of January in the Year one thousand eight hundred and one.

and as her last Will give and devise unto her 12 Nephew William Godber all her Estate both real and personal of every nature and kind whatsoever and wheresoever the same may be situated and every part and parcel thereof unto him the said William Godber his heirs and assigns for ever, and did in our presence as aforesaid revoke and declare void all former or other Wills by her at any time or times heretofore made, and nominated and appointed the said William Godber as Executor to this her last Will. In Witness hereof we hereunto set our hands and seals this tenth day of January in the year our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one.

No. 31. In the Name of God Amen, I John Fabre of the City of Charleston, Merchant, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, but for two months past much diseased in body, do make this my last Will and Testament, in form as following. And first after paying the necessary expences for the interment of my body, I desire that my debts (which will consist only of what ever notes of hand, I may have out besides a few small demands) may be paid as soon as possible. I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved friend Miss Catherine DeBerniere, the second daughter of Colonel
