

14. The gentleman whom I suppose to be the father of the Child the wench now goes with, is an intimate friend of mine and give me fifteen guineas at Camden, as a fee for acting in the manner as above mentioned, he knowing that I was sensible of his keeping the wench, his name I am under promise to keep secret. Item I give my negro woman Nansie unto my grand son Thomas D. Singleton, under those conditions that the Child she now is big with, be disposed of as above mentioned and kept with its Mother, until it is three years old, then to be taken away and disposed of as I have directed, also it is my desire that the first Child she brings after this she now goes with, may be given to my Son John Singleton, and the next to Son Phipley Singleton, and the remainder part of her increase if any, to be the property of my Grand Son, to whom I have given the wench. And I do nominate and appoint my three Sons viz. Bracey Singleton, Phipley Singleton and John Singleton, together with my Son in law Capt. Samuel Wells, as my Executors and for them to act under the advice of Col. C. Pinckney and William S. Gibbs Esquire.

N. 5. In the Name of God Amen, I Theodore Irrelevant of the City of Charleston, in the State aforesaid, being in perfect health, tranquil in mind, and of sound memory, do hereby make and declare my last Will and Testament in manner and form following that is to say, Inprimis it is my will that all my lawful debts and funeral expences shall be paid out of

By my Estate, by my Executors hereinafter named as soon as they can make it convenient. Item I give and bequeath unto my beloved Wife all my plate, linen, household goods, household furniture and kitchen furniture. Item if the French Gold (whom by a deed dated the eleventh day of March instant, I have conveyed to M^{rs} Charles Crowley in trust for my beloved daughter Charlotte Croft, subject to my use during my life) should die before I do, I give and bequeath unto my said daughter seventy pound sterling, to be laid out by my Executors in a slave of her choice and to be settled upon her upon the same trusts and limitations as are contained in the said deed. Item I do hereby empower and direct my Executors to dispose of either at public or private sale and for cash or credit as they may think most advisable, all my Estate, whatsoever and wheresoever not herein before bequeathed. Item after paying all my legal debts and funeral expences and the legacy left to my daughter Charlotte, if the same should become payable, I give and bequeath all the rest and residue of my Estate to my Wife, my five Children and my Grand Children by my daughter the late M^{rs} Martha Thomson, to be equally divided between them (my said Grand Children to take one share among them) and if either of them should die before I do his, her or their share or shares of my Estate shall descend to and be vested in such person or persons as would be intitled to the same under the late act of distributions, if I had died before him, her or them, provided that if the mulatto girl called Dinah (whom by a deed dated the seventeenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one, I have conveyed subject to my use during my life, to my daughter Ann Sarah, now the Wife of Daniel Heyward Esquire) shall be living at my death, then the share of my said daughter Ann Sarah shall be forty pounds 16 less in value, than that of either of my other Children.

And lastly I do hereby nominate, constitute, ordain and appoint my Sons Peter Trexvant and Lewis Trexvant and my Sons in law and good friends W^m.
Liam George Cross and Daniel Heyward, to be the Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking every other or former Will by me at any time heretofore made. In Witness whereof I have here-unto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this twenty third day of March in the Year of our Lord one Thousand seven hundred and ninety five, and in the nineteenth Year of the Independence of the United States of America.
