

Oct 8th 1703

The Day came in which Chapman entered his caveat that the Exors should be granted for the marriage of Catherine Rowland to any person & her being servant
to her P^r Chapman

Nov 17th 1700

The Day came in which Chapman entered his caveat
that the Exors should be granted for the marriage of Catherine Rowland to any person & her being servant
to her P^r Chapman

Sept 16th

This Day came Robert Gitts Esq^r and Entered his Caveat to y^e Estate of Raynard Bricklay Deceased, as Principal Creditor, and Prays Letters of Administration &c.

27th This Day came Mr. David Williamson and Entered his Caveat to y^e Estate of Raynard Bricklay Deceased, as Principal Creditor, and Prays Letters of Administration &c.

28th This Day came Mr. Francis Fiddling and Entered his Caveat to the Estate of Thomas Raynard Bricklay Deceased, as Principal Creditor, and Prays Letters of Administration &c.

July 3rd 1703 This day came Mr. Samuel Nicoll and Entered his caveat to the Estate of Rogon Nicoll his father lately Deceased as son & heir at Law and prays Letters of Administration &c.

July 3rd 1704 This day came Mr. John Flavell & Entered his Caveat to the Estate of Mr. Joseph Flavell Deceased as principal Creditor of y^e y^e Deceased and prays Letters of Administration &c.

August 7th 1704 This day came Mr. John Lawton & Entered his Caveat to y^e Estate of Mr. James Braxton Deceased as principal Creditor of y^e y^e Deceased and prays Letters of Administration &c.

October 30th 1705 This day came Mr. John Hillon and Entered his Caveat as Letters of Administration be granted for y^e Estate of Mary Pennington Deceased until he is first called he being principal Creditor of the y^e Deceased