28. I, John Latham, do hereby certify that I have duly read the foregoing last will and testament of my said deceased wife, Susannah Latham, of Berkeley County, in the County of Garrett, State of Maryland, in body subscribed and signed in presence of three or more competent witnesses and that this my will and testament is in manner and form following: I recommend my love to the memory of God who gave it and my body I commend to the earth to be buried in such place and with such charges as my Executive thought proper shall think fit and for my worldly estate I do both now assign to be sold to the use of my beloved wife Susannah and of my children and of my estate both real and personal whatsoever and poised with or hereafter may be to be enjoyed by my said beloved wife during her life (except as hereafter mentioned) the first paying my my unpaid debts (except charges) Now I give and bequeath to my daughter Abigail after my aforesaid beloved wife Susannah decease all my whole estate both real and personal to be enjoyed by her and her heirs forever. Now I order and dispose that in case my said daughter should die before the age of one and twenty years to be married before her mother my said beloved wife should depart this life that my said daughter shall receive and have one half of my whole estate (except my plantation and lands of which my said beloved wife shall have pleasant possession and enjoyment during her life. Now I do make ordain and constitute my aforesaid beloved wife Susannah sole Executrix of this my last will and testament and I do hereby revoke and annul all former and other wills and testaments by me heretofore made and published. In witness whereof to this my last will and testament I have set my hand and seal this 23rd day of February

No 39 In the Province of Carolina. Considering of the certainty of death & the uncertainty thereof I make this my last will & testament first I commend my soul to ye mercy of God that gave it, and my body I commit to the Earth to be buried in such place and with such charges as my Executors shall think fitt & for the worldly estate which God hath blessed me with I dispose of as followeth my debts being just & pay I authorize & give grant devise & bequeath to my beloved wife Margaret Arden one full moiety or half part of all and singular my real and personal estate in what soever part of the world the same is or shall be in to have and to hold the same to her and her heirs and assigns forever. Item I do give grant devise and bequeath to my beloved daughter Margaret Arden one full moiety or half part of all and singular my real and personal estate in what soever part of the world the same is or shall be in to have and to hold the same to her and her heirs and assigns forever And it is my will that if my daughter Margaret Arden should happen to dye before she comes to the age of twenty one years that then the one full moiety or half part of my estate herein given to her shall go to my loving wife Mary Arden her heirs and assigns forever.
 Lastly I do make and ordain my loving wife Mary Arden to be Executrix of this my last will and testament requiring my Executrix to see the same performed and to take the best care & heed of my daughter to bring up. And I utterly revoke all former wills & testaments by me hitherto made and declared. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this twentieth day
