

Extracted from Original Record No 9 page 576 removed from Secy of State
Office pursuant to Act of Assembly 1809 & Exam'd by M. T. Landonball Esq
Ch. Sec. 1852.

George Burnett

L. L. The Last will and Testament of George Burnett of Barkley County No 22. In the Name of God Amen. I George Burnett of Barkley County with the Presence of God being weak in body but of sound memory but impaired in the natural powers of mind for the setting of my estate in the World before my leaving the same I make this my last will and Testament recording and making void all former Testaments. I wish commend my soul to God my Father and my body to be buried in the Earth in a decent manner in hopes of glorious resurrection to the charges of my funeral with all my other debts due from my estate being paid. I give and bequeath unto my well beloved son George named Katherine's daughter and one negro girl named Lucy and three hundred pounds current money thereunto to be paid unto him in full at the death of my decease and also my household goods except one bed furniture for and of my children I give I give and bequeath unto my son George all my lands and tenements my personal things and one horse saddle saddled & furnished with harness I give and bequeath unto my daughter Anne one negro girl named Susan and one horse and saddle and one bed furniture. And my wife is that in become mentioned in my devise that all my slaves except such as I have given with my wife and children with all my stock of horses cattle sheep and hogs and all my plantation tools may all be sold at the best advantage and my executor shall think most fit that the money may be put out to interest for the maintenance of my children until they come to age. And I wish that my executor should pay unto the Methodist ministers or Directed donors yearly ten pounds current money of America towards his salary until my son George comes to age.
I will that after all my debts and legacies are paid that what money there is remaining maybe divided between my loved children. I desire I request unto my son George two thirds and to my daughter Anne one third part And I will that it may be paid as they come to age And if Anne should marry that she may be paid her part on the day of marriage or twelve months after. I will that if either of my children should die before they come to age or have any law full issue that then the Executors should beir the deceased persons portion and if both should die without issue or without law full issue that then I will that my Executors shall have all that they leave for to dispose of for the good of the destitute meetings where they live as they shall see most convenient. I will that my son George when he shall come to ability maybe bound unto a trade that according to his own choice. Finally I make this my last will and Testament in the presence of my good friends Mr. Mallichy Glass and Mr.
John Betts Executors of my last will & Testament. In witness whereof I set hereunto my hand and seal this nineteenth day February in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred & twenty six. George Burnett

Jan. Aug. 1797

Personally appeared before me Jacob Hanigan and John Hanigan two of the subscribing witnesses to the within will who being sworn under Holy Evangelists of Almighty God declare they were present and did see the within named George Burnett sign seal publish and declare the within Instrument contained in two sheets of paper to be his last will and Testament and that the said testator at the time of executing the said will was of sound and disposing mind and memory according to the best of their knowledge and the Deponents further say they did solemnly subscribe their names (together with the other witness William Betts) as witnesses in the presence of the said testator and at his request

W. Middleton

Subscribed and sworn to before me John Betts Clerk of the Court Recorded of Chas. Hart Secy.

Extracted from Original Record No 9 page 576 removed from Secy of State
Office pursuant to Act of Assembly 1809 & Exam'd by M. T. Landonball Esq
Ch. Sec. 1852.

Samuel Jones

L. L. The Last will and Testament of Samuel Jones of Barkley County No 23. In the Name of God Amen. The seventeenth day of January in the year of our Lord God One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven Samuel Jones of Barkley County with Indians Parish Planter being sick in body but in perfect mind and memory thanks be to God therefore calling unto meid the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die I make and ordain this my last will and Testament in form and manner following. I give and bequeath unto my well beloved wife Dorothy Jones the full use and possession of the house where we live in and the land thereunto belonging during her natural life with all moveables thereunto belonging during the same time and to bring up and maintain my son Thomas Jones and my grand daughter Mary Ann Smith till the day of her marriage but in case her husband or mother dies before that time then the child shall be brought up by her Aunt Waite but in case she is not brought up with her grandmother Dorothy Jones or her Aunt Waite then she shall have no right nor title to a maintenance or for from my Estate. Now I give and bequeath to my well beloved son Thomas Jones the house and tract of land known as the old containing three hundred acres with all my slaves and all other my moveables whatsoever after the decease of his mother to be freely possessed by him and the law full heir to be his of his body forever. Now I give and bequeath to Samuel Smith formerly my son in law ten pounds Carolina money. Now I give and bequeath to each of my sons and daughters and to all the children he shall hereafter have by her a negro slave each. Now I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Mary Ann Smith two negro slaves and the child comes as a child of her marriage. If in case my son Thomas Jones dies without