

to him the said Samuel Turner his heirs and assigns forever. I then gave and bequeathed unto my son Joseph One gray mare named Bony her and her increase to him the said Joseph Turner his heirs and assigns forever. I then gave and bequeathed unto my son Benj^m One mare named Briffetts her and her increase to him the said Benj^m Turner his heirs and assigns forever. I then gave and bequeathed unto my daughter Elizabeth Turner all the age of fifteen or more being in full of father's portion to her and her heirs and assigns forever. I then my will is that out of my estate that is not yett disposed of my well beloved wife shall have her maintenance & living excepted for w^t forty pounds every year untill money of this Province to be paid her yearly first day of March commencing from the day of my death during her widowhood and after shee the many times the aforementioned shall be uncovered by my sons during her natural life. I then gave and bequeathed unto my sons a promissioned all the rest of my estate real and personal to be equally divided share and share alike to them and their heirs and assigns forever they each allowing for the schooling of the youngest children as there mother shall think fitt. Then my will is that if either of them should dye before marriage or die without issue he or sheen Joseph comes to the age of eighteen then there share to be equally divided among the rest of my sons And in case either of them should have unduly left to there mother that then she the said Elizabeth Turner shall call them off as she shall think fitt. Lastly I nominate constitute and appoint my dear wife Elizabeth Turner and my son Thomas Turner and my son Sam^l Turner my Executors of this my last will and Testament In testimony whereof I have hereunto putt my hand and Affixed my Seale this twenty seventh day of February One thousand seven hundred and sixtyn sealed published & declared to better testation last will and Testament.

In presence of us Nic^s Bodden Jn^s Kibbles - Benjamin Gidley) Minist^r Church

proved before J. H. Moore Governor and Ex-Mayor of New Samuel Tarners Renunciation of Ex-officialship

Extracted from Original Record No. 5 page 99 removed from Sec'y of State's Office pursuant to Act of Assembly, No. 1399 & exam'd by W. T. Henderson © G. D. 1857.

In the name of God Amen I Robert Seabrook of Colleton County + Province of South Carolina being sick and weak in body butt of a sound and

and perfect memory these bequeath to his wife and calling himself the owner certainly and stability of this testamentary life and being desirous to settle things and do make certain constitute and appoint this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say first and principally I commend my soul to all-mighty God, my Creator, delivered by believing that I shall receive full pardon and free remission of all my sins in through the merits of my blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and my body I commit to the Earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors hereafter nominated and appointed: And touching such worldly estate as the Lord in mercy hath lent me I give bequeath and dispose thereof as followeth. I give I give bequeath and devise unto my loving wife Mary Seabrook and her heirs and assigns forever fourteen negro and in dear slaves whose names are as followeth viz. Sampson, Will, Hatto, Little Sambo and July male negroes Aphy and her children and Dutton female negroes Hane a male ^{Cherokee or Indian woman} ^{Indian male boy} ^{Indian male boy} and Indian female three hundred seventy and two acres of land and plantation on Madisonaw Island lately purchased of my brother in law Maj^r Arthur Ball with my stock of cattle horses mares sheep and hogs thirteen and one half fall my stock of cattle horses mares sheep and hogs that are upon my Island commonly known by the name of Seabrook's Island together with Lumber my household goods and furniture tools and utensils of what nature or kind soever with all my ready cash whether gold silver or wrought plate which said negro Indian slaves at the above bequeathed stock of cattle horses mares sheep hogs and all and every of them future respective increase and all and singular thereunto bequeathed three hundred seventy three acres of land and all and singular the appurtenances thereto belonging in a manner aforesaid I bequeath unto my aforesaid loving wife Mary Seabrook ^{for her and her heirs and assigns forever} for her and her heirs and assigns forever and ever to have and to hold and to enjoy and clearly acquired received and discharged of and from the payment of all and all manner debts and demands whatsoever according to the manner was formerly by me given unto my aforesaid loving wife and her heirs and assigns from by the name of Mary Seabrook in all and every the before mentioned bequeathed particulars by deed of gift bearing date the eight day of January and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred thirty six said deed of gift in all the parts thereof according to the express tenor and words therein contained and in every sentence thereof and in every of them I do hereby declare firm and effectual both in Conscience and Equity to my aforesaid loving wife Mary Seabrook and her heirs and assigns forever. Secondly I bequeath unto my aforesaid loving wife Mary Seabrook liberty during her widowhood to reside at my Island as formerly and there to enjoy all the privileges common seized of and to the said Island commonly known by the name of Seabrook's Island without any impeachment of or for any manner of waste of any person or persons whatsoever during the time of her widowhood aforesaid. Thirdly I will and bequeath unto my loving brother Joseph Seabrook and his heirs and assigns forever all my Island commonly known by the name of Seabrook's Island (excepting and forever reserving) and parcel of the same to be for my aforesaid wife during her widowhood and the estate of her of horses mares cattle sheep and hogs thirteen and one half