*This is the Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Palmer now Wife of Joseph Palmer, of St. Stephens parish in Craven County South Carolina. I do give and bequeath unto my well beloved Husband Joseph Palmer my Goods and Chattels, which was made over to me by marriage Settlement on Conditions that after my Goods and Chattels be well and truly appraised, He shall pay Fourteen hundred pounds current money of South Carolina to make up part of the Settlement made to me by my former husband, which I have made use of and also one half of the remaining part of the Sum of the Appraisement of my aforesaid Goods and Chattels, to be paid to my well beloved son John Galliard at the day of Marriage, or when he shall come to the Age of Twenty one Years.
It is my will that that part of my Estate coming to my son John be Improved by my Executors as they think proper till he come of Age, And in case my aforesaid son should die without issue, or before he become to the Age of Twenty one Years, that then the aforesaid conditioned money shall go to my well beloved husband Joseph Palmer, Provided that he shall survive my aforesaid son John, but in case he should not survive my son John, that then the aforesaid conditioned money shall be equally divided.
That is to say, one half to go to my well beloved Sister, Marian Palmer's Children that shall be then living, the other half to go to my well beloved Sister Catharine Ball's Children that shall be then living to them & their Heirs for ever. And Lastly I do nominate and Appoint my well beloved Husband Joseph Palmer and my Friends Samuel Cordes and Phillip Porcher Executors of this my last Will and Testament In witness
