In the Name of God amen May the second day in the fourth year of King George the Third's Reign and in year of our Lord one thousand Seven hundred and Sixty four I Frederick Strouble of Charles Town in the Province of South Carolina Bricklayer, being sick and weak in body, but (Blessed be God) of sound and disposing

Disposing mind and memory and Considering the uncertainty of this transitory life and the certainty of death do make and Ordain this my Last Will and Testament. Principally Commending my immortal spirit to God who gave it in and through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ my blessed Saviour and Redeemer on whom I rely for the pardon and remission of all my sins and for Eternal life and salvation my body at death I commit to the earth to be buried in a decent and Christian manner as my Executors hereinafter named shall see proper in hope of a glorious Resurrection to life and Immortality and as to all my moveable Estate and such lands and Tenements, goods and Chattels as it hath pleased God to bestow upon me. I give and Ordain that the same and every part and parcel thereof shall go and be disposed of in such manner and form as is hereinafter respectively mentioned that is to say First I will and desire that all my just debts and General Expences shall be duly paid and discharged and for that End and purpose I hereby direct authorize and Empower my Executors hereinafter named and the survivor of them his Executors and administrators with all convenient Expedition after my decease, to sell and dispose of, for the most money that can be gotten and to the highest Bidden and also to grant and convey in due form and manner of law to such person his or her Heirs and assigns absolutely forever as he or they shall see fit not only all that my messuage or Houses and part of a town lot of land situate on the west side of King Street in the said town together with the Hereditaments and Appurtenances thereto belonging but also to sell and dispose of for the most monies that can be obtained for the same all my Realty Chattels and slaves except only such articles and parts
