In the name of God amen this second day of May An. Do.
 1761 I Margarety Drew Widow and Relict of Nathaniel Drew late of Williamsburg Township in the province of South Carolina being frail and weak in body but of good sound and perfect memory and calling to mind the mortality of my body and apprehending the time of my dissolution, map far off do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul to the hands of almighty God who gave it and for my body I recommend it to the earth (nothing doubting but my Exors will cause it to be buried in a Christian like & decent manner) in firm expectation that at the General resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life as well what my said husband left me, as what it has improved since, I give, Bequeath and dispose of the same in the following manner and form

Imprimis After the payment of all my legal debts and funeral charges I order and allow my Exors after named, as soon as possible to make sale of my estate and the money arising therefrom to be put to Interest in sure hands and the said money be paid to each of my Grandchildren according as they come of age or when they marry, and that there be an equal distribution of the same among them, I mean that every one of my Grandchildren have an equal share of my Estate.

Item I order my Exors also to make sale of the Tract of land whereon I now live and also that which I purchased from the Exors of William James and to be distributed as above, but woud be understood in this manner that the Tract first mentioned is not to be sold until my Son Samuel Drew dies without issue. Item to my Daughters Brockington & Nesmith all my wearing apparel to be shared equally among them. I likewise make, constitute and appoint my trusty and well beloved Son in law John Brockington and Samuel Nesmith my only and sole Exors of this my last Will and Testament. And I do here by utterly disavow and every Will Testaments and Bequest by me in any wise before this time made ratifying and confirming this & no other to be my last Will & Testament

In the Name of God amen. I Jane Broadbelt of Prince Williams Parish of the Province of South Carolina being of perfect Mind and Memory and calling to mind and duly considering the uncertainty of human life do make this my last will and Testament. First & principally I commit my Soul into the Hands of my blessed maker trusting in his mercies and in the merits of my dear Redeemer, for the remission of all my sins and as to my temporal estate I do hereby dispose of in the following manner. Vizt And first my will is that as soon as conveniently may be after my decease that my whole Effects whatsoever may be sold by my Executors hereafter named and my just debts duly discharged and then that the neat remains of my said Estate be duly and justly divided between my children John Broadbelt, Mary Ferguson and Ann Watkins equally and share and share alike; But as my Daughter Ann did live with me some years before she was married to her first Husband W^m Beatty, and during that time our accounts were not kept separate but all things were charged to me and it was agreed upon by the said Ann and me that half of the said Expence should be paid by her, now as we have never had a settlement in case she should dispute to pay said accounts with my Executors hereafter I do hereby give my Executors power to deduct whatever the amount of the said charge may be against her for the half of the said Expences
