Brisbane are to be expressly understood as releasing my Estate from all claims of dower or other demands by them or either of them against my Estate and to be considered in lieu thereof and that the Sixty Shares transferred by me in the books of the State Bank on the Eleventh day of December 1848 to the

Considered in view thereof and that the Fifty Shares transferred by me in the books of the State Bank on the Eleventh day of December 1848 to the reverend John Barnwell Campbell in trust for my said Wife and twenty Shares on the same day to John S. Brisbane and Adam W. Brisbane in trust for each of their sons named William Brisbane during my life and were to revert at my death to my Estate and be at my disposal agreeably to their declarations of the trusts now in my possession. it is therefore to be understood that the said One hundred Shares in the State Bank as aforesaid is considered by me in this my last Will and Testament as a part of my Estate and forming a portion of the several legacies bequesth-ed to my said Wife and adopted sons. Stem having no children of our own we were desirous of substituting some one towards whom we might exercise the endearing affections required of parents and consequently impress them with a feeling towards us of more than common interest & by conferring on them such advantages of Education as would by the blessing of divine Providence render them ornaments of their Country and worthy members of Society and in our desire to give them the principal inheritance of such Estate as we may be favoured with by the Author and Giver of all things, we would that complete all that could be expected even of natural Parents. In making choice of persons for this purpose it was natural to select them from my own kindred & more I therefore applied to my two Brothers who freely and voluntarily oblige 372 up to me each of them a Son whom I received from their Parents in early infancy and I trust have conscientiously discharged my duty towards them but from my advanced age and the uncertainties of life I have selected from my friends those who are fully competent and are willing in friend-ship to me to act as their Guardians and to carry into Effect the plan of Education and general improvement intended by me, my brother having other Children to Educate may very well dispense with the trouble of managing that of my Son by adoption whom they relin-quished to me for that purpose. I therefore cannot suppose that they will when they know and duly appreciate my motives attempt to throw any obstacle in the way of carrying into Effect this my last Will by withdrawing either of my said adopted Sons William Henry Brisbane or William Brisbane from the care & management of their Guardians as aforesaid when I am no more but should either of them be so indiscreet as to do so, then it is my Will and direction that he forfeits all benefit to be derived from any bequest or legacy (either immediate or contingent) which I have herebefore bequeathed or de-vised to him or them and I hereby instruct my Executors in such case to pay him or them no such bequests, nor any monies to or for such of my adopted Sons as aforesaid as shall be so withdrawn untill he or they arrive at the age of twenty five Years. And Lastly I do hereby nomi-nate & constitute and appoint my dear Wife Mary Brisbane and my dear daughter Elizabeth Brisbane my Executors and my adopted son, as aforesaid as shall be so withdrawn untill he or they arrive at the age of twenty five years. And Lastly I do hereby nomi-nate constitute and appoint my dear Wife Mary Brisbane and my worthy and much esteemed friends James Legard Robert S
