16 W. I William Crafts, being in good health, but advanced in N^o 3. years, and of full constitution, think it proper to make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament. In the first place I require that all my estate both real & personal be sold. in the second place, all my legal debts be paid, and in the third place, that if any residue remain, after such sales and payment of my legal debts, that such residue be divided among my children share and share alike. And I do hereby constitute and appoint my wife Harriet Brewster Crafts and my Son William to be the Executors & Executor of this my last Will & Testament. Witness my hand and seal this thirteenth day of July 1818. W. Crafts (S)
