 I request Mr. DeBeje, and in case of his absence or of any other impediment, Mr. Ledigneur to give me after my decease the same token of that friendship which he has all along shewn to me, in taking on him the execution of my last Will. I wish my negro servant Isaac to remain free to employ his time for his own advantage, as he will judge proper, not meaning that any expence should be incurred towards giving him any other freedom, nor that person whatever should be authorized to require any here money from him, or to sell him, or to dispose of him in any manner whatsoever. I request of M^r. Depestre to accept of a snuff box to be purchased for him by M^r. DeKobe and on the cover of which he will cause some of my hair to be inscribed. I request of M^r. Ledaigneur to accept of a gold pin as an acknowledgement for his constant attendance and his bill will besides be paid to him. I request of M^r. DeKoyse to accept also of a gold pin and a lock of my hair. I possess eight hundred and sixty odd dollars deposited in the bank, from which all expences for the above and my funerals being deducted the ballance is to be equally divided betwixt M^r. DeSt. Cheron my guardian and M^r. DeSt. Cheron Depestre bequithing also unto her all my jewels, trinkets, wearing apparel and other my moveable property. Charleston 29. April 1802.
