6P. 26. I William Ferrall of the city of Charleston, ^{South Carolina} being of sound mind, and understanding but labouring under sickness (the visitation of Providence) do consider it prudent to make this my Will & Testament knowing the uncertainty of this mortal life, revoking and annulling all Wills heretofore made, that is to say, First paying all just and lawful debts and demands due by me, in the said city of Charleston. Secondly I constitute & appoint Conly Copin as my agent to carry the following intentions into effect, that is to say, to sell by public auction my Grocery Establishment and to collect all the debts due ^{to} me allowing himself the commission in such cases as may be lawful. I do hereby order him to remit Mr. Maria Handy two hundred Dollars due her as consideration money for my late Grocery Establishment, her address is No. 167 Beekman Street New-York: Should any remain after paying all just demands. I order it to be remitted to Mr. Joseph Burne 133 Bridge St. Dublin

I Reeling Lewis Simons do declare this to be my last Will. I give my saddle horse, saddle & Bridle to my friend Joseph Palmer Esq All the property I got in marriage has been settled and will according to the settlement: all the rest residue and remainder of my own Estate real and personal of what nature or kind soever I give devise and bequeath to my wife and children to them and their Heirs Executors and administrators share and share alike.
I direct that my Estate may be kept together for the education and maintenance of my children and the support of my wife indiscriminately until my youngest child comes of age. Should my Executors or a majority of them deem it advisable to sell the whole or any part of my Estate I give my said Executors full power and authority to make a Sale of the whole or any part of the said Estate and to execute good and sufficient titles for the same without the necessity of Purchasers seeing to the application of the purchase money; and I authorize my said Executors to invest the proceeds in any manner they may deem advisable: Should a Sale be
